

University of Louisiana Monroe ULM Digital Repository

The Pow Wow Newspaper

1-29-1932

The Pow Wow, January 29, 1932

Heather Pilcher pilcher@ulm.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.ulm.edu/pow_wow

Recommended Citation

Pilcher, Heather, "The Pow Wow, January 29, 1932" (1932). The Pow Wow Newspaper. 10. https://repository.ulm.edu/pow_wow/10

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by ULM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Pow Wow Newspaper by an authorized administrator of ULM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact lowe@ulm.edu.

SUBSCRIBE

TO THE POW WOW

VOL. I - No. 3

MONROE, OUACHITA PARISH, LOUISIANA

FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1932

Thrif Week Discussed in Assembly Wednesday

The weekly assembly opened Y. W. C. A. last Wednesday morning with the entire student body singing "America." Following the National song, a quartet, composed of Clayton Beeson, C. C. Bell, Margaret Grower, and June Hodge, sang "Stars of the Summer Night." The encore, "Baby Face" was received with even more applause than the opening

Acting as master of ceremonles, President Colvert introduced Mr. D. P. Gerald, of the Mutual life Insurance Company, who spoke of the work fostred by the National Life Underwriters Association, and how it is carried to the roll. on by the local Underwriters As-"The American College of Life Underwriters was organized in 1929. A four year course offered by Loyola University in this state, trains students in methods of life insurance salesmanship, and the economic and sociological relations to in surance. Louisiana State University, although it does not have the C. L. U. course, can give examinations for College of Life Underwriters' work. Mr. Gerald read an interesting letter which Mr. Albert G. Borden, chairman of the Lif Insurance Day, had received from President Hoover in connection with the work planned for Life Insurance Day during Thrift Week. The letter follows: "My Dear Mr. Borden:

"I am interested to learn of the plans for Life Insurance Day to focus attention on the part which insurance plays in the economic life of the nation, as well as in the assurance of individual and family stability. The sixty-eight million policy holders of the country with policies aggregating one hundred nine billion dollars, represent a major stratum in the very bed-rock of our economic life. Insurance not only protects the home and family and their social and spiritual values, but helps to meet current and (Continued on page four)

Library Books Have Arrived

The library will be open for welcome news to every student in the Junior College. Three hundred and twenty-four books have arrived and are waiting impatiently to be perused by interested students.

English enthusiasts will be especially pleased to know that they can now find exposition in the form of interesting essays and biographies in their own library. Og especial pride to the English Department is the Cambridge History of American Literature, which set of books is an asset to any collection. Many beautiful new editions of the classics have also been secured. Moreover, there are a number of books of fiction which will prove equally enjoyable to all types of persons. Many books of both the classic and fictitious literature are well illustrated in colors; too, most of them have large print and are quite easily read. Later on, the librarian expects to order the Encyclopaedia Britannica and several dictionaries for this depart-

Almost every department of the college is represented to some extent in this collection of books. Altogether, there are about one hundred and fifty books in connection with the English Department, and about one hundred for who work in this branch are the Science Department. The sacrificing much of their time, The History and Political Science and the school owes them a vote classes are also well supplied with of thanks for their school spirited

(Continued on page three)

Elects Officers

ANNE MICKEL IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF GIRLS' ORGANIZATION

At a meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday, January 20, officers for the year were elected. Ann Mickel was made president; Marjorie McBride, vice president; Thelma Hargus, secretary, and Estelle Roberts, treasurer. Fortyeight new members were added

The Y. W. C. A., which had its initial meeting, January 4, is now a definitely organized association with a total membership of sixty girls. The twelve charter members are: Ara Brueck, Gladys Warner, Joel Nichols, Ann Mickel, Mildred Dennis, Margaret Smith, Freeda Mickel, Jessie Gray Worthington, Estelle Roberts, Elsie Aulds, Louise Hundley and Achsah Belt. Those added at the late meeting are: Virginia Cutler, George Dooley, Marguerite Kirkpatrick, Ruth Boone, Sally Mae Hartley, Mary John-son, Mary Myers, Mrs. Fannie Couch, Katherine Wroten, Daurice Kirk, Lanette Southall, Mrs. Jewel Durham, Myrtle Vincent, Mary Graves Taylor, Marguerite Smith, Dot Oglesby, Ara Benton, Hazel Wynn, Iris Gordy, Mildred Courson, Inez Jasper, Sara Hammons, Esther Frizzell, Edith Anthony, Willie Lee Lang, Mary Frances Bird, Johne Freeman, Grace Christian, Hettie Nolan, Eleona Brismade, Wilma Briton, Katherine Powell, Elouise Lively, Christine Clowers and Vivian

After a few changes the constitution drawn up by the constitutional committee, was legally adopted. It sets forth the rules and ideals of the organization February 19th. and contains ten points of character which all members are expected to uphold and respect—Christianity, anti-snobbishness, school loyalty, scholarship, willingness to serve, high moral standards, courtesy, pleasing personality and anti-smoking.

A room on the third floor has the second semester. This should been selected for the meetings and social affairs of th club. This roon, is to be opened in the near future, and evryone is invited to enjoy it with th members.

New Advertising Committee Formed

Still another advertising committee has been put into effect as the last two have not brought proper results. C. C. Bell has resigned as business manager and Charles Mosely has been appointed to his position. At the last minute Mosely set to work with two efficient helpers, Mildred Dennis and Eleona Brinsmade, who are experienced in the advertising field and already members of the staff, and secured enough ads to make this edition possible. Had it not been for their timely succor, the Pow Wow might have appeared late. Byron Breard also assists in this department but hithertofore has found the job far too much for one. Advertising is the financial sustenance of this paper, thus an efficient department must be maintained at all times. Students

Creative Club Is Organized

A Creative Club has been organized under the excellent supervision of Miss Bess Mary Crider, head of the English Department. The purpose of this organization is to promote and encourage creative writing among the students of the college.

At a recent meeting of the club the following officers were elected: J. W. Cunningham, president; Freeda Mickel, vice-president, and Mrs. Ruth Rasbury,

The members will begin work on short stories, plays, essays, poems, and other literary productions at once. At the end of the school year, this organization hopes to publish a collection of the best productions of the club. All students interested in creative writing are asked to attend the next meeting of the club.

The following are charter members: Mary Graves Taylor, Delbert Evans, Paul Flowers, Eleona Brinsmade, J. W. Cunningham, Anne Mickel, Ella Pearl Sutton, Mary Bergevin, R. M. Bentley, and Freeda Mickel.

Beard Growing Newest Of Fads

The students of Cuachita Junior College, especially the girls, are inquiring about the Bolshevistic looking creatures running freely around the school. There is no need for alarm, because the men who are able to qualify have gone on a shaving strike. Whether the depression or just their own whim, is the cause for this contest remains uncertain. One charter member said that he could save money spent for razor blades to take the favorite fem out, but to his disappointment the girl refused to give the wooly boy friend a date. What are they to do now, as they have money to spend and no one to spend it on? Such is life till

This "Beard Growing Club" was organized last week through the efforts of Mr. Bill Frisbie who, by the way, was elected president of the club.

ker, Bill Frisbie. The charter will be advanced courses. Frisbie, T. A. Breard, Squatty

Term Themes Are Finished

On January 22, just exactly two weeks before the close of the first semester, important documents, neatly bound, began to pour into the English Department. All day these interesting papers came in, and it is rumored that sunset did not stop the incoming. President Colvert complains that a late but persistent student who had forgotten the address of the head of the English Department rang his door bell at ten-thirty or theraebouts and delivered a contribution.

The subjects of these papers are many and varied, ranging from "The Development of the English Drama" to "Literature in The very careful Louisiana." workmanship exhibited by the English students in the preparation of this, the culmination of the semester's work is to be highly commended. Real research work is evident in many cases. Each paper is complete with a neat title page, an outline, footnotes, and a carefully prepared bibliography.

Even Miss Crider admits that the progress of the English Department has been "almost" satisfactory, but she prophecies a much speedier progress for the second semester, "now that we have really made a start."

College Expects Larger Enrollment

Many new students are expected to enroll in Ouachita Junior College at the beginning of the second semester. Some of these will be beginners in college work, others will be those who have gone to some other school highertofore but are transferring to Ouachita Junior College for their second term work.

However, there will be a decrease in the number of students now attending this school as it is to be expected that some will not be able to make the grade, thus necessitating their removal. Already the faculty is planning the The officers are: First Whis-ker, Darrel Holt; Second Whis-first term work, and the others

At the opening of Ouas Young, Paul Martin, Buddy Junior College, many students Moore, Frank Lombardo, Clay-were doubtful of the outcome Paul Flowers, valuable worker on ton Beeson, Harold Dennis, Bill should they enter. But since the Pow Wow, is also a member Cook, Dale Cobb, Johnny Clark, school has proved a popular suc-Paul Cromwell, Emmet Usrey, cess these people are only too anxious to enroll at mid-term.

BRIEF REVIEW OF THE STUDENT

The end of the second semes- that met with instant approval ter shows a popular participation was the Y. M. C. A. This group in student activities and the has made great progress and is foundation of many clubs. Football probably heads the list of achievements inasmuch as the other organization that has not school has gained fame through had time to become strongly or this department. The record of the football team was remarkable considering that this was the school's initial year and the team was hastily organized. The end little additional time bids fair to George Welsh and three janiof the season found only two defeats and one tie to mar the debut of Ouachita Junior College in athletics. Next year a better team will probably function, as Coach Kemerer will not be hampered with a shortage of equipment or assistance, and the completion of the new gridiron will give assurance to the fans of seeing a better game on a better field.

Of Basketball much can not be said, as the team has not had the opportunity to prove itself. Ineligibilities have crippled the team severely. An organization now located in their new headquarters on the first floor. Angan ed but promises to rival the men's group is the Y. W. C. A.

been a great success and with a rival any club of the school. Their efficiency was demonstrated by the orderly conducted dance they gave a short time

The Booster Club started off with a bang, but of late is seldom heard from. This group is a most important one and should not be allowed to deteriorate.

All plans have been laid for the forming of a Dramatics Club as soon as a vacant period makes this organization possible.

The Creative Writing Club cor-(Continued on page four)

River Rising Rapidly Y. M. C. A. Plans

Flood Situation Worse;

WILL SEND DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION NEXT MONTH

Frogram For Year

At a meeting of the Ouachita Junior College Y. M. C. A. last Monday afternoon, plans for the organization of a Y. M. C. A. basketball team were discussed, the program committee made its report of the program to be followed throughout the year, and preparations were made for the sending of two official delegates to the state convention at New Orleans, February 12.

The club decided at a previous meeting to organize a basketball team. Raymond Masling has been appointed to organize the team. He announced that the first practice would be held next Monday afternoon.

The program committee presented as its conception of the program to be followed through out the year, that meetings should be held at least once a week, that prominent men of the city should be chosen as speakers at not fewer than two meetings a month, and that interest groups, groups interested in different phases of Christianity, be organized to present each program.

John Strahan, president, announced that at least two members of the club were to be select ed to represent the junior college at the Y. M. C. A. convention at New Orleans. It was decided by the members that a committee should be appointed by the president to select five men. The names of the five selected will be (Continued on page three)

Students On Staff Of Town Paper

Harold Dennis, one of the popular students of Quachita Junior College, joined the staff of the Free Press, a local publication, last week. He will act as reporter of the sports activities of the twin cities and the college. Mr. Dennis is not inexperienced and should fill his post well. Congratulations Harold.

Dennis is not the only student of Quachita Junior College who writes for the Free Press. Mr. Paul Flowers, valuable worker on of the reporting staff of the same paper. We expect great things from both of these students.

West Monroe School Damaged By Explosion

A violent gas explosion severely damaged the Crosley School in West Monroe about 7:30 Wednesday morning. Frances Williams, negro janitress, was painfully burned as a result of the force of the blast. Only four peo-The girls' athletic club has ple were in the building at the time of the explosion, Principal tresses. Several children were playing on the grounds, but fortunately none had entered the building.

> The south wing of the building was badly damaged and other portions were injured. Doors and windows were blown completely a. m. out and desks were heaped in piles i nseveral of the class rooms. Residents three blocks away felt the shock of the blast.

It is believed that a gas leak under the floor of the fifth grade room was responsible for sisting of an enthusiastic group the blast. When the jaintress en-(Continued on page three)

With a steady rise of the Ouachita and a continuous downfall of rain, the flood situation around Monroe appeared to be growing worse today. Greater apprehension was felt for the south side of Monroe, which is approximately six feet lower than the water level in some places. Hundreds of men were working frantically to reinforce several places in the dykes, which might prove serious as the river rises.

Rescue work in West Monroe s practically ended with most of the families moved out. The north side water was lowered about a foot when a downpour of rain brought the water to its old

During the rescue work, a Pow Wow reporter saw many strange sights. Going down to the Twin City Boat Company which is owned jointly by the editor-in-chief of the Pow Wow and another Monroe youth, the reporter found a throng of boatmen and their craft lying alongside the docks, some of these were coming in loaded with household goods, refugees, and even barnyard ani-Others were going out to ai dthose who were still in the nundated area.

When asked if he would like to accompany a rescue party, the reporter replied in the affirmative. The craft, a small speedboat, was dispatched to bring out of the flood waters several hundred prized white leghorn chickens. C. C. Bell, another college student, went along also in his boat to be of aid if necessary. After arrive ing at the partially submerged hen farm, the youths managed by herculean efforts to set the coops, filled to capacity with chickens, on the boats. Just as they were departing, one bold rooster effected his escape. But his free-(Continued on page three)

Plans Made For New Semester

On February 8, 1932, Ouachia Junior College will enter upon her second semester with a few changes as to schedule and curriculum. Some of the first semester subjects will be offered again to accommodate new students who will enter school next term. In addition many new courses will be instituted in place of some of those now offered. Among the first semester subjects which will be given again are: English, psychology, political science, ancient history, French and Spanish. The new courses will be a follows: English, library science, health and hygiene, mathematics, educational psychology, trigonometry, history, and geography of Louisi-

Another important change will be made in the schedule. Next term there will be four periods in the morning and two in the afternoon. Lunch will be served from 12:45 to 1:30. This change was made so that laboratory classes can be held in the morning, and so that one of the new mathematics courses, which is a four hour subject, can be arranged advantageously. The schedule will

First period: 8:45 a. m. - 9:45

Second period: 9:45 am. - 10:45

Third period: 10:45 a. m. -11:45 a.m. Fourth period: 11:45 a. m.

12:45 p. m. Lunch: 12:45 p. m. - 1:30 p. :n. Fifth period: 1:30 p. m. - 2:30

Sixth period: 2:30 p. m. - 3:30

The Pow Wow

Official Publication of the Student Body of Ouachita Parish Junior College, Monroe, Louisiana.

Howard Griffin	Editor-in-Chief
Achsah Belt	Associate Editor
I. W. Cunningham	Associate Editor
Charles Mosely
Byron Breard	Asst. Business Manager
Harold Hunt	Sports Editor
Paul Martin	Asst. Sports Editor
Anne Mickel	Feature Editor
Freeda Mickel	Feature Editor
Jessie Worthington	Feature Editor
Johnnie Cox
Eleona Brinsmade	News Editor
Mildred Dennis

AN HONOR SYSTEM

The staff of the Pow Wow would like to see an honor system installed here in school. We believe that the benefits of such a plan are manifold. In the first place, it gives the students a chance to come in contact with honesty in its purest form. It gives them a chance to learn of the higher phases of righteousness and probity.

Other colleges have adopted this system and by means of it have abolished cheating and petty thievery. Washington and Lee University offers an excellent example of a large school where one's possessions are inviolable. Newspapers are left unattended on the the bad weather, the dance provstands; candy, gum, fruit, and similar delicacies, with their price ed a success and everyone had a marked on them, are sold cafeteria style. When the owner returns, nice time. he finds his stock intact, with the exception of that part of it for which money has been left by the purchaser. Although it is remarkable that things are never taken from these tables unless paid for, it is a great tribute to those students whose word is their bond.

At Washington and Lee pupils are not eligible for enrollment until they sign the honor pledge. If, after entering school, they Members of the Junior College violate their parole d'honneur, a committee of students decides whether or not the offending person is to be allowed to remain in the University. It is for this, if for no other reason, that the students are particular about honesty.

Of course we realize that such a system cannot be established in a day. However, the foundation may be laid now. After the cornerstone is set, the rest, with the cooperation of the student body, will take care of itself.

Who will be the first to sign the pledge?

PARASITES

A parasite is an animal which feeds upon another, taking means of living from it. There are many examples of the parasite: moss, which takes life from a tree or bush; the flea, whose maintenance comes from the life of another; and the human parasite, whos every move takes existence from some other human being.

The human parasite is found in every walk of life-on Fiftl Avenue and in the slums; in the office and in the home; in the high school and in the college. Well-known parasitic persons are those who depend on relatives for livelihood, and as notorious as these are the parasites of school-life.

All through school, some innocent fellow copies from his classmate every lesson and test, borrows from him every pencil, every book, every sheet of paper he uses, to say nothing of the valuable February the nineteenth. All Juntime he takes, and which he can never repay. This same parasite will enter college on a fellow-student's knowledge, never prepare a lesson, never buy a book or sheet of paper, and worst of all, never even buy a Pow Wow. He BORROWS a Pow Wow.

If you are a Pow Wow parasite, please bear in mind that you are causing the death of the Pow Wow. It cannot live unless you buy a copy of each issue.

DON'T BE A PARASITE—SUBSCRIBE FOR THE POW WOW NOW.

WORK AND IDEALS

It has been well said, "Humanity never rises above its ideals." The most magnificent temple ever erected first existed in the mind of the architect, and fell before his ideal.

A life without purposes or ideals is like a ship without a rudder. It will keep going but it will never get anywhere. It is related of Alexander the Great that when asked how it was that he had conquered the world, he replied, "by not wavering."

Life is an arrow—one must know the mark he wishes to aim at.

A person should not be satisfied with the little things of life. Only big ideals can bring out the best that there is in man. God means for every one to be a success in his particular field. For that reason, He gives power to approach reasonably close to any ideal. All great men have had great purposes. Abraham Lincoln said during the Civil War: "My paramount purpose is to save the Union." It is impossible for all to be Lincolns and save a nation, but every one can have the spirit and determination of a Lincoln and consecrate himself to the doing of at least one great and helpful thing. Unless one is inspired by a great purpose and a high ideal with a resolute determination to make his life count, he will not make a very lasting impression upon the world about him. The moment a person loses sight of his goal before him, the moment he loses the force that propels him, he simply drifts along the path of least resistance. How often a man or woman overcomes weakness by an intense devotion to a great purpose!

But one must not hope to realize his purpose or reach his ideals without work. The summit is for those who can climb. "To the stars through difficulties.'

The enthusiasm which buoys one up and accompanies mastership is not generated in an idle mind, or by a half-hearted effort. A man's powers are given him that he may conquer obstacles and grow strong by striving. "Genius," said Edison, "is one percent inspiration and ninety-nine percent perspiration.'

Any one can accomplish untold results if he keeps the goal before him, works hard enough and keeps at it. One gets what he pays for in character, in work, and in energy.

LOYALTY

Loyalty is a quality that is constantly expressed in our speech and conduct. It is that indefinable something which brings us closer to our friends, our tasks, and our principles. There are loyalties which are stronger than others, and these usually dominate our lives. For instance, we may be loyal to our school, and loyal to our school, and loyal to our friend; but, if our friend asks us to do something which is contrary to the ideals of our Alma Mater, we are obligated to ignore his request and be true to duty.

Our supreme loyalty should mean enough to us to cause us to go forth and champion its cause, yes, even to die for it if necessary. It is easy to soothe our consciences with flimsy excuses, but how much bigger and better we are when we turn a deaf ear to the ridicule of those about us. How much simpler matters become when we sacrifice our lesser loyalties and stand for the supreme loyalties regardless of what those around us may offer in mockery.

CAMPUS GOSSIP

The Delta Sigma fraternity held open house on South Jack son street Friday, January 15th from nine till twelve. Members of the Junior College attending were: Mr. Joe Williamson, Miss Hortense Pope, Mr. Slickum Turner, Mr. John Strahan, and Miss Johnnie Cox.

We were glad to have Mrs Colvert as a visitor to Chape Wednesday morning.

Members of the Junior College who attended the Booster Club meeting Wednesday, Jan. 20th, were: Misses Dot Oglesby, Georgia Dooley, Eleona Brinsmade, Dot Lewman, and Johnnie Cox.

On Friday, January the twenty second, the Parish School Seniors were hosts at a dance given in the College Gym. In spite of

The Delta Sigma sorority held open house at the home of Miss Adelia Sandel o nDeSiard Road. who attended were Misses Hortense Pope and Johnie Cox, and Messrs. Bill Yerger, Joe Williamson, John Strahan and Harry St.

We shall all regret the departure of Mr. Slaughter, who is returning to his home in Louisville, Kentucky, because of high water

The Phi Kappa Fraternity held open house last Saturday night. Messrs. John Strahan, Joe Will iamson, Snookum Turner and Bill Yerger represented the Junior College at this function.

Next on our social calendar is the big "Honor Dance" to be given in the College Gymnasium by the athletic association Friday, ior College students and their friends are cordially invited to attend and make this dance the biggest and best of the year.

Saturday night, January 9, after the basketball game, Miss step on in crossing. Dorothy Lewman entertained Junior College students at her home on St. John Street. Dancing was the main diversion of the evening, and delicious confections were served by the hostess to her guests. The excieting victory of the Indians over the Magnolia about this shy, bashful Brownsteam was celebrated by the following: Margaret Dill, Myrtle Vincent, Merle Mullins, Jewell Hicks, Alyce Iassacson, Lila Mae Fishbalm, Mrs. Fred Andrews, her "Paces" instead of her steps. Mary Bergevin, Bill Carlton, Son Ebert, W. Green, Jack Adcock; 'Squatty" Young, Pete Rasbury. Buddy Moore, O. B. Morton, Frank Smith, W. T. Mack, Lynn McGuffy, Ed. Hayward, "Jennie" Hayward, Pie Harris, James Dawson, John Dawson, Paul Le-Blanc, Lloyd Guy, Amos Smelser, Allen Barham, Fred Beckett, Pete Ingram, Jew McLeod.

POIGNANT MEMORIES

Oh no, I never shall forget That fateful night when first we met:

Twas in the moonlight, white and still

Beside a murmuring mountain

I gazed into your somber eyes While mine grew wider with sur-

I felt your strong arms round me fold And listened to the tale you told.

I yielded to your close embrace; I felt your warm lips on my face; Your hot breath mingled with my hair There in the moon-lit mountain

On no, I never can forget, You dog-goned cop, when first we met, My "corn" you poured into the

And here I lie in prison still!

MINNE-HA-HA-HA

Beware ye the intrigues of Cupid.

So, Lucile Hyde is going to Shreveport to see her "brother." Since when has her brother's name been changed to Tommie?

Jewell Hicks has become airminded, or probably it may be termed light-headed. Proof of this is an Aviation Corps Pin that she wears.

Preposterous but true - Ken nedy has a nice new spit curl This added attraction was put on for the benefit of Mosely or was it Tucker? Anyway this came from a good reliable source.

What's this we hear about undue publicity given one of Frisbie's fems in this column causing him to receive a letter saying that all was off? "Signed Gertrude." Well she should have felt complimented having her name coupled with Bill's in this great

Have you heard one of the raveling salesman jokes? If not ask Inez Jasper to tell you cne. Her's will be from experience. But this one sold can openers.

Will D. King hereby gives public notice that he (W. D. King) is no longer on the market. His release from circulation may be attributed to Joy Steele, Neville High School.

Wonder why Mr. Albritton is so interested in the library lavely -maybe the books are fascinating. But he is just one of the many. He'll have to work fast if he intends to get ahead of some of our young college sheiks, who have to be forcibly ejected from the office of the librarian. Perhaps Pete Ingram, "Squatty" Young, Floyd McLeod, and "Lasses" Barham can tell you more of this affair.

Lombardy, cherising an undying love for a certain co-ed, is at his wits end as to how he may attract her favor. He wants to do something gallant. Well, we suggest that he lay his coat upon the muddy campus for fair lady to Still going strong, Jack Noble has thus far withstood the advances of certain co-eds namely Alice Daniels, Elsie Aulds, and Louise Morrison. These girls have often given sweet remarks ville Youth.

Gladys Warner has a dangerous rival. She had better watch Inez Johnson's. Paul is certainly getting popular.

We have it from very inside sources that Edith Anthony has a secret passion for Red Worley of Bastrop and Mildred Dennis has the same malady for Ben Stanley also from Bastrop, Evelyne has a secret too, that she would like not to be in this column. She likes "Snooky" Turner very much. I "Snooky" is glad to hear it. much. Hope

Harold Dennis has confessed to his closest friend (the one that told us this) that he loves Marjorie McBride like nobody's busi-

We have found out the young lady that Mr. Smith corresponds with-Miss Carver of Ruston.

Bud Hamilton and Sue Harkness hold hands in history every class meeting.

Ever notice Fred Becket hold ng Myrtle Vinson's hand and gazing in her languid eyes. Wonder what he wants?

The secret is out! Johnnie Cerniglia is Cupid's latest victim. His co-partner is Mary Bergevin. If you don't believe it watch Holloway's Pharmacy for a Hudson sedan.

A recent development involves class ring. C. G. Wall wears

The Prisoner

There is, in our midst, one person who is continually getting in and out of the "can." You have probably guessed who by now. It's none other than our poor, taunt proof Amos. The "can" we speak of is not the local bastile, but his trusty—yes trusty, even if it is a bit pre-modern-Ford. Each morning the bell, which is the equivalent of any judge, speaks and Amos walks out of the "can." The noon bell, and back to it he goes. However, with the last bell in the afternoon, Fate steps in disguised as our good coach and the prisoner is allowed a few more hours or freedom, for he then practices basketball. After this is over the inevitable is reenacted.

We are positive, nevertheless, that if an interview was granted, the subject of our discussion would highly rcommend his confinement, as would the many of his friends that have shared it with him, because of the convenient periods they are imprisoned for. There are also innumerable others who would gladly exchange places with our fellow student if given half a chance. In any case, more power to you and yours, Amos.

THE GREAT CLOCK The clock of life is wound but once,

And no man has the power, To tell just when the hands wil

At late or early hour.

Now is the only time we own, Live, love, toil with a will, Place no faith in tomorrow, for The clock may then be still. -Selected

Sometimes I thing the things we

Are shadows of the things to be; That what we plant we build; That every hope that hath been crossed;

That every dream we thought was lost,

In heaven shall be fulfilled. -Phoebe Cary.

Mr. Smith: "Now, for the second number we will play 'The Star Spangled Banner'.

Harold Wilenzick (whispering nervously to Raymond): "Gosh I just played that."

Bill Frisbie: "Mother, today you look upon my face for the last time.'

Mrs. Frisbie: "What! You would leave your home forever?' Bill: "No, mother; I'm going to raise a beard.'

Maybe they are just "friends."

Did you ever notice Dot Lewman wearing a navy cap? The same cap has been worn by our Editor-in-chief. What does this mean?

We heard that Achsah Belt has condescended to be seen in company of a young man whose identity we were unable to learn. Rumors say that this was her first date. Wonder if it will be her for the gas company.

quite a furor among the male students, and no wonder—.

A certain West Monroe young man (we heard that it was Dale Cobb) undaunted by the flood waters proceeded to secure a boat and visit his beloved "a la Ventime of departure when the astonished youth discovered to his he came home "duck fashion."

Just Imagine-

John Strahan not thinking that he is Rudy Valee. He may be served at all times in tuneful

"Squatty" Young being timed among the weaker sex. In their midst he is a representative of the cave man type and the poor dears quake at the sound of his Hortense Pope not capturing the heart of some high school freshman. The one in particular is a Neville High student. Shame on Hortense for encouraging the youngsters.

Mr. Kemerer telling the class in a quiet subdued voice to "shut up." His vocal power is a source of wonderment to many of us. Harold Wilenzick or Clayton

Beeson unable to translate French in spite of the fact that they are never guilty of opening a book. "Idgitte" McDonald disliking to copy boardwork. At any rate he would rather have a cut than indispose himself.

Fred Osbourne being able to talk fast enough to tell the fire department where the fire was before the object was entirely consumed by flames.

Delphine Kelly being an artist's model. But she told us on the level that she would, after finishing college, become a pulchritude. instructor.

Coca-Cola Co. Presents Pictures To O. J. C.

Last week the Coca-Cola Company of this city presented two handsome lithographs to Ouachita Junior College. One of the pictures is of Benjamin Franklin, and the other is of Robert E. Lee. Incidently both of these men were born in the month of January. Mr. Biedanharn, manager of the local plant, stated that it is the plan of the Coca-Cola Company to give the school the pictures of two other great figures next month. These will be of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, both of whom had birthdays in February. The pictures of Franklin and Lee, fine works of art, have been hung in the registrar's office.

Humor

Oh, I'm so full of love today For all my fellow men I'd gladly knock somebody down To help him up again.

First, Kangaroo: Annabel where's my baby? Second Kangaroo: My goodness, I've had my pocket picked.

Wilmer Young: I come to bring warmth and light into the bleakness of your home.

Romantic Flapper: Oh, you Wilmer: Nix on that love stuff, kiddo, I'm the installment man

Bill Frisbie (to parson): Please The new librarian is causing pray for my father's floating Parson: But I can't pray for anything like that.

Bill: Well, the other day you prayed for the loose livers.

Miss Wolfe went in a downtown confectionery store the ice" style. All went well until the other day to buy some pecans. Becoming impatient when no one came forward to take her order, secret glee that his conveyance she rapped sharply on the counhad drifted away. But all in vain, ter and said: "Here, young lady, who waits on the nuts?'

LIST OF EXCHANGES

"The College Chatter," Little Rock Junior College, Ark. "The Flor-Ala," State Teachers College, Florence, Ala. "The Wildcat," Louisiana College, Alexandria, La. "Kennel," Texarkana Junior College, Ark.-Texas.

"The Tech Talk," Louisiana Tech, Ruston, La.
"The What Now," St. Mary's College, Leavenworth, Kans.

"The Sizzler," Neville High, Monroe, La.

Edited by Harold Hunt

Football - Basketball - Track Tennis - Baseball

Parish, College Teams Win Girls' Cage Game

the Women's Athletic Association last Wednesday afternoon when the women's cage teams, coached by Miss Doris Turner, met in a doubleheader in the junior college gymnasium. The Parish team defeated the Gym team by the overwhelming score of 23 to 2, and the Junior Class team was beaten, 15 to 5, by the College team.

The Parish team and Gym team started the show. At the half the other squads took the floor and played a half. After the half of the second game, the first game was finished.

The Parish team took an early lead as Lily Hendricks, Parish sharpshooter, began to hit the hoop with regularity. While Beulah Martin and Hazel Maye rarelv let the ball get by them into Gym territory. If, however, the ball did get near the Gym team's goal, Louise Hamilton and Vera Smith were highly successful in preventing the Gym forwards from shooting. Hendricks scored first and had made twelve points at the half. Frances Byrd also scored for the Parish, while the Gym team was scoreless at the

At the half of the first game, the College team and Junior Class team took the floor. This game was a closer contest than the first. June Hodge started the scoring and had scored three field goals and a free throw at the half. Cecile Crowell also scored for the College team, while on the Junior squad, Bessie Downing had scored a foul and May Wilson had looped a field goal. Ara Bruck and Mary Ppton played good ball at guard positions but were unable to hold their opponents closely, while Ona Jones and Mary Maroney were more effective in guarding the Juniors, At center Edith Childers and Viola McCirty went to a draw with Mrs. C. .. Couch and Iris Gordy.

During the last period of the first game, the Gym team tightened. Myrtle Vincent scored early and the ball was kept in Gym territory most of the early part of the period but they were unable to hit the hoop accurately. However, when the ball came into Parish territory the Parfishers rarely missed. Hendricks scored nine points during this period. The game ended 23 to 2 in the Parish team's favor.

The last half of the final game was very close. The College team was held to 6 points while the Junior team looped one field goal. Hodge made two field goals an da foul in this half. Crowell tossed a free throw. And Wilson looped one field goal. The guards on both teams were very effective during this half as scoring was held closely. The game ended 15 to 5 for the College

Athletics opened officially in Safety Firsts Edgs Out Celtics, 28-24

The Brown Paper Mill Safety Firsts defeated the world champion Celtics Thursday night, January 20, here in the Junior College gymnasium by a small margin of 28 to 24.

A large crowd witnessed the game which was very interesting throughout. The gym was filled with spectators from Monroe, tion. West Monroe, Brownville, Bastrop, Ruston and many other neighboring towns, who are fine supporters of the Safety Firsts.

The game started very slow with the Celtics taking their time and passing the ball under the goal before shooting. The Celtics kept in possession of the ball most of the time and scored at will during the first half. Dehnert and Banks gave the crowd an exhibition of pass work which had the paper mill puzzled during the first half. The score at the half her. was 13 to 9 in favor of the

The second half saw a change with both sides showing much speed and passwork. The Celtics started working the famous wheel play which is their most famous play. The Safety Firsts had been drilling on the defense of this play for the past two months but they were unable to do anything towards breaking it up when the Celtics showed a squrt of speed.

Most of the shots made by the Brown five were made from long range, while the Celtics made most of theirs on free throws. Rowe, Phillips and Frickie were the outstanding players for the Mill, while Barry and Dehnert were the outstanding players of the game.

The game was very rough which accounted mainly thirty fouls which were called The Celtics did not agree with the official decision and there was much delay of time because of

The Celtics were handicapped by the loss of Lapchchick, who had a bad knee and was unable to take part in the game. Lapchcicle, is their tall center and originator of the great pivot play. Farry, the wizard on making goals, had a bad arm but played in spite of the fact that he could hardly use it. Most of the crowd seemed well satisfied with the game. Lineup:

Brown Mill (28)	Celtics (24)
Stone (2) f	(6) Barry
Phillips (7) f	(4) Banks
Rowe (11) c	(8) Hickey
Γrickie (6) g
Roden (2) g	(2) Holman
	The second secon

Y. M. C. A. To Organize Basketball Team Soon

The Y. M. C. A. held its weekmeeting last Monday. The chapter discussed very important matters and one of those was the forming of a basketball team.

The young men of this organization will practice every afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, starting next Monday. The team will be coached by a member of the Ouachita basketball squad.

The team will play many of the neighboring high school teams and are expected to have a very successful season as there is some fine material in this associa-

The Y. M. C. A. will also try to form a tennis team. Members of the Y. M. C. A. will construct a court in the ~mnasium. This will be discussed at the next meeting.

Art Student: How many kinds of milk are there?

Miss Mengis: Why, there's condensed milk, and evaporated milk, and—but why do you ask?

Stude: Well, I was drawing a picture of a cow, and I wanted to now how many faucets to put on Things a fellow thinks don't mount to a darn sometimes pile ip a mountain of grief. Last night my wife was working a crossword puzzle and she looked up and said, "What's a female sheep?" and I said "Ewe," and then the battle began.

Library Books

Have Arrived

(Continued from page one) reference books. The French De partment has a particularly good assortment, especially since it contains Heath's Petit Larousse, a French and English dictionary, which will be an invaluable aid to students of the French language and literature. Another good set of books is that belonging to the Biology and Psychology Departments. In addition, there are Chemistry and Hygiene books to further enlighten students in these pursuits. A group of Modern Painters will be of inter-

About fifteen periodicals have already been ordered, but none have started coming in yet. It is hoped that at least a few of them will be here for the first of the second term.

An equally great inducement to reading is the new librarian. She has already had manifestations of adoration from the male portion of the college, and it is said that she is as efficient as he is pleasing. Therefore, a change may be expected in the attitude the students have formerly taken in the library. Great interest has already been shown in the newly arrived librarian and books. It is to be hoped that the interest in neither will decrease.

Practice Before Game Women Cagers In Last

The gymnasium was turned over to the Women's Athletic Association Monday afternoon when the College Team and the Junior Class Team met in a joint practice game before their initial game here last Wednesday afternoon with the Parish team and Gym team.

All players of the College team were present, but several members of the Junior Class team were unable to attend practice, including Captain Upton.

Women out for the practice session were, Crowell, Hodge Maroney, Jones, McCarty and Childers. Junior Class team: Downing, Wilson, Brueck, Johnson, Couch and Watson.

The Parish team and Gym team met in practice sessions last week. All teams are under the was stopped on the pro-Turner.

West Monroe School Is Damaged By Explosion

(Continued from page one) ered the room and struck natch to light the gas, the explosion occurred. She was rushed to the colored clinic at the St Frances Sanitarium.

Before school is resumed, gas officials will thoroughly examine and test the building to eliminate all possibility of an other explosion from escaping gas. On Friday the West Mon roe Baptist Church and W. M Methodist Church offered thei respective buildings to be used for class rooms, until the school is repaired and investigated thor oughly.

Y. M. C. A. Plans Program For Year

(Continued on page four) turned over to the faculty advisory council, composed of Prof. F. F. Smith, chairman, Prof. C. C. Colvert, and Prof. J. Paul Kemerer, which will determine the two best qualified to represent the college at the meet.

Harris Tyson, local district Y M. C. A. director, was present at the meeting. He has been a great aid in the organization of the club here.

Officers of the club are: John Strahan, president; Scanlon Butler, vice president; Dale Cobb, secretary, and Charles Cason, treasurer. Other members are: Fred Beckett, Clayton Beeson, Ernest Brossett, George Buckner, Charles Cason, Millard Fisher, Clifton Furlow, Ray Green, Francis Hamilton, David Hunt, Harcis Hamilton, David Hunt, Har-lanything mark time with old Hunt, Charles Jacobs, J. F. hands?" Jones, Jr., Paul Martin, Raymond Masling, Paul Moore, O. B. Morton, Jr., Fred Osborn, Alvin Ray, Harry St. John, Amos Smelser, Frank Smith, Billy Sullivan, W. C. Tucker, C. G. Wall, and William Wenner.

Indians in Game With Farmerville Tomorrow

Flood Situation Worse; River Rising Rapidly

(Continued from page one) dom was short lived, as young Bell, seeing the importance of this fowl to his flock, leaped into the water and grasped the rooster's leg. Only after the captive had been restored to the coop would C. consent to drying his clothes. When the boat with its cargo started on its homeward trip, not a single egg was in the coops. Incredible as it may seem, however, these hens did not neglect their daily duty because of a flood or the noise of an outboard motor. They laid egg after egg. On account of this fact the boat was stopped en route several ducts so as to prevent them from being broken. Later that afternoon on arriving at the home docks a check-up revealed that exactly 120 eggs had been laid! This may be verified by young Bell, the reporter, and several witnesses.

Instead of hurrying homeward the reporter tarried to observe the incoming boats with their unique cargoes. One craft glided alongside the dock loaded to the gunwales with furniture, crying children, and a cow. These families from the Toni Bayou section continued to pour in steadily until the reporter's curiosity was aroused to visit the submerged section Boarding a speeding craft he made his way to this part of West Monroe, east of Brownville. Sev eral barges, many small boats, and two large tow boats were assisting in the removal of the stranded people. One amusing incident provoked laughter of the rescuers when an obstinate bossy refused to climb a gangplank onto a barge. Mr. G. O. Breece, however, came to the aid of the workmen. Applying his knowledge of bovines he proceeded to twist the tail of the bewildered cow in a manner similar to cranking a model T Ford. After several twists, bossy thought that further resistance might prove damaging to her tail, so she leaped aboard without further ado. This and many other incidents, too numerous to be mention were seen by the roving Pow Wow re

Coach Kemerer (in gym) Hey, you! Mark time!" Marvin Shipp: "With my feet,

Coach K .: "Have you ever seen

Marvin S.: "Clocks do, sir."

Coach Kemerer has been working the Indians almost every afternoon preparing for a game with the strong Farmerville Independents. The Indians will journey to Farmerville tomorrow for the game there and the following week-end the Farmerville team will meet the Indians in a return game.

The Farmerville Independents are rated as one of the strongest teams in North Louisiana and Coach Kemerer is expecting some strong opposition.

The Indians have just started to play the style of basketball which they are capable of playing. They have won three games and lost two, but playing the ball they are playing now, they are favored to win the remainder of their schedule.

Coach Kemerer will take only en members of the squad with him. These ten men will all see plenty of action. A large crowd is expected to witness the tilt.

Thrift Week Is Observed

January brought us a special week known as "Thrift Week," which befittingly began on January 17th, the birthday of Benjamin Franklin the "Father of Thrift." Franklin gave us many oits of wisdom regarding thrift. Among other things he said:

Be industrious and free. Waste neither time nor money, ut make the best use of both. Beware of small expenses: a mall leak will sink a great ship. Benjamin Franklin was born in 1706, and he has recently been described as the first civilized American. Arthur Dean says: When you have a Thrift Week remember that Franklin was the criginal thrifter. When you toast your feet on the stove, remember that Franklin started this idea of stoves. When you turn on the electric light, remember that Franklin was the first electrician. When you take out fire insurance, recall that Franklin was the organizer of the first insurance company. When you study the Gulf Stream, remember that Franklin was the first to have it charted. When you read your morning mail, remember that Franklin organized our postal system.'

All of these are great accomplishments, but they were all done during Franklin's leisure. They were in addition to his regular work. It was the thrifty use of his leisure time that mal possible for him to be of such great service to his country.

EUREKA GROCERY

I. W. Rogers, Prop.

Groceries, Meats, Produce, and Feed

"THE FARMER'S FRIEND"

West Monroe, Louisiana

Compliments

of

MILLER SIGN SHOP

THE COLLEGE BOOK STORE

Has The Supplies You Need

Compliments of

NORRIS BROS. DEPT. STORE, Inc.

"EVERYTHING TO WEAR"

West Monroe, La.

Complete Line of Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishings

KENT'S ICE CREAM COMPANY

Patronize A Fellow Student

SEE ALEXANDER LEA

For Your Barber Work THE WHITEWAY

Wood St., West Monroe, La.

EVERYTHING, 25c

What Means Should Be Developed To Make The Paris Peace Pact Effective?

A Term Theme by Freeda Mickel | denied.

establish the ties of fellowship leadership. that will preserve the peace of the

for international peace in our day depends not upon the will of any one or any group of statesmen, not even upon the moral leaders directs this movement is that the by a gradual and proportional re- talks are to be made by several people of the civilized world who duction of armaments supported of the outstanding men of the have learned the meaning of war through its useless and tragic devastation and who are intent upon the great experiment involved fairs one of the oldest, if not the Peace will come when material tion, who read the Declaration of very oldest of the instruments by which the rudimentary forms of organized society enforced their will and attained the aims of

The Pact needs the wholehearted and intelligent support of every citizen. Sound peace cannot be imposed from without. It can come only from a formulation of tendencies for peace in the human heart where fear, hatred, suspicion, retaliation, and ignorance are found. When these are replaced by more good will, unity, confidence and brotherly love, peace will have its influence on all people.

Will the Pacific Ocean some day echo with the boom of cannon and the conflict of many nations? Notif we uphold the principles of peace. Not if all people will enlist in the greatest of all international goals - making peace secure, maintaining brotherhood, and defeating selfish nationalism.

If universal peace is to fling wide her portals, if there is to be lasting peace, the golden key must yet be used. The iron key If we abolish war, the armament opens the gate into the paths of righteousness that lead to peace. The silver key unbolts the door to the house of peace, but the golden key of love unlocks the heart of peace. Here, within the inner court, is the garden of peace, where old fashioned flowers of friendship scent the air. Let America enter, and, by the unselfish acts of kindness and deeds of mercy, cultivate the "forin friendship's name. Let a portion of her halfbillion-dollar defense budget be devoted to the needy nations about her. Bread instead of bullets, public schools rather than poisonous gases; the building up of wounds and not the making of them; let these be America's program of defense. Then, and not of the angel chorus:

Peace on earth, good will toward men.

The world's hope for peace rests in its young people, who are still plastic and forming their attitudes and opinions, and whose prejudices are easily overcome. Much can be done to uproot war if the present generation is brought up to think and feel in terms of peace. This ideal with education can influence the structure of a nation in behalf of a warless world.

Above all, perhaps the responcolleges, and schools of the different nations. There relatively free from the pressing duties, men and women in their adult focused on the problem of peace. lives, are those who can study this vital question. As a result of their study, the weight of youth will be thrown into the scales, either for progress or for retrogression. But if the coming its wish vocal, peace will not be reality.

colleges throughout the world initiative formit have best described in the control in the individual Within the past few Pact was the beginning of a great have heard much about their duty atic saving which this represents every role; her infectious laugh peace endeavor. The effective in the matter of preparedness for strength lies not in the Pact, but war. It is high time that eneris derived from an informed publication be given to the lic opinion and the will of the wore urgent duty of preparedness people. Only the people can give for peace. Surely this is a form power to this treaty. They should of preparedness in which those strive to understand each other, who have the privilege of higher to cultivate friendship, and to education should assume the The mighty reservoir of capital

Limitation of armaments can make the peace ideal a reality, country.

The triumph of the movement when the possibility of a resort to when the possibility of a resort to arms is gradually decreased. As "Yours faithfully, "Herbert Hoover." long as each nation tries to excel the other in navies and armies, lasting peace cannot come. Now is the time to stop the next war vadio during Thrift Week. The > destruction and poisonous gases is forcing us to choose between world peace and world suicide. Lord Bryce warns:

will destroy us."

Today the nations of the earth dare stop save from exhaustion. Shall the relic of barbarism continue to cling to the enlightened nations?

The doctrine of absolute soverignty has always been the foe of law and order, and so today the chief forces of effective international agencies are the extreme advocats of national sov-

There is only one path to disarmament, and that is the path of first outlawing the institution of war. Armament is not the cause of war; it is the creation of war. problem will solve itself.

tudes of innocent men, women, ship and struggle. and children. Love kindness— Once financial independence this is great statesmanship; for has been obtained through life inwars between them will cease.

today that law and justice, instead of resort to war must be the ruling force in the world.

By keeping ourselves informed about world affairs, malicious propoganda will not be able to sway our foundation. The faults until then, shall be made possible of the adversaries are more often the happy realization of the song exaggerated, while their virtues are hidden.

A new world civilization has risen which rests upon the interdependence, not the competition of every nation. The prosperity of one nation is involved in other nations for industrial and commercial progress. War makes the useful resources of a nation destructive and brings desolation, peace brings the harmony of freedom of the seas and lowered tariff, war brings discord.

And informed public opinion, education for peace, limitation of armaments, and the law of reason and justice are contributing to sibility lies in the universities, the effectiveness of the Paris Peace Pact. The banner of internationalism is being raised, and the attention of the world is

> Till the war-drum throbb'd no longer, and the battle-flags were furled,

In the Parliament of man, the Federation of the World.

This was Tennyson's dream, generation wants peace and makes which can be made a world-wide

Thrift Week Discussed In Assembly Wednesday

(Continued from page one) future needs of expanding industry, commerce, and education. I am informed that more than one night, Miss Adams gave a superb half, or fifty-four per cent of the performance of Portia in Shakespeople of the United States, own makes for stability in the entire social order.

During the period of economic dislocation through which we are passing, insurance has been a maand will contribute to recovery. and security which insurance represents is an asset to the inmake the peace ideal a reality, dividual, to the family and to the

Mr. Gerald also outlined the program to be given over the by an intelligent and sympathetic country, including United States public opinion. For with what-Senators Wagner and Capper. ever good intent armies have been Mr. Gerald then introduced Mr. gathered and navies built, they Bradley Waelden, president of have inevitably led finally to war. the local Underwriters Associaarmaments have been developed Financial Independence. "A decinto moral and spiritual defences. Jaration of political independence Universal peace is a necessity makes the nation free from alien today as never before in history. Science by her implements of on of the worst of modern tyrants -economic slovery. Poverty, in many of its ugliest phases, has been eliminated in this country, "If we do not destroy war, war but the fear that necessities and nodest comforts may be lacking in old age or for dependents, is are bankrupting themselves in likely to make cowards of us all, the mad race for armaments. It is and life insurance is the one unia vicious circle in which none versal and sure method of throwing off its yoke.

If such independence, providing necessities and comforts, can also be made to include a few accustomed luxuries, the battle may be said to have been won just that much more gloriously.

Independence once achieved can be maintained. The policyholder who lapses his insurance is in the position the United States would have occupied in 1812, if it had refused to fight to maintain the independence which it had won in the Revolutionary War. After th ewar came the "critical period in American history," the formation of the constitution, the establishment of The law of reason and justice the Federal government, the should be deciding factors in the years of struggle, the War of settlement of all international 1812, the crystalizing of the nadisputes. The injustice of big national spirit. But all through tions toward little ones has caus- these years, independence was ed many wars and killed multi- maintained, and not without hard-

Once financial independence when nations bekin to be kind in- surance, it will be worth many a stead of mean and suspicious, hard fight to maintain it throughout the years, rather than prove We must educate the youth of disloyal to the spirit which first conceived and achieved it."

President Colvert then introduced the Reverend Mr. Scott, of the First Methodist Church, who

Maude Adams In Spectacular Role

After thirteen years of retirement, Maude Adams is once more in the limelight. Thursday peare's "Merchant of Venice," at the Paramount theatre. Her glittering personality was evident in kept the audience in merriment.

Otis Skinner, as Shylock, was without a flaw. His make-up was a marvel. The entire cast was at its best. For diction and delivery, jor factor in maintaining stability Antonio, portrayed by Charles Francis, was outstanding.

The scenery throughout was very effective, and the lighting was at its best. Miss Adams herself perfected the lighting system while living in Schenectady, N. Y., during her retirement.

Ever true to her code, Miss Adams refused to grant interviews, but we did see her in her dressing room. Every garment, which, by the way, was very beautiful, was in readiness for the act. Each had a place, and between scenes there was little or no difficulty in changing robes.

Miss Adams' dressing table was comething to marvel at. There were orderly rows of tiny jars, bottles, tubes, and boxes. Every brand of cream could be found there. All makes of skin lotions were neatly arranged as were the powder and the numberless perfume containers.

made a short talk on "The Good Things of Life." According to Dr. Scott there are three good and essential things in life. The first, a great aim to live for; the second, a great conviction to live by; and the third, a great soul to live with. Ordinarily considered, the good things of life are the articles which money will buy, such as houses, cars, and other luxuries. These are things which the poor cannot have. However, the poor can have that which sometimes the rich are not able to find, as happiness. So we see that the good things are not always the ones which cost the most, but are the ones in which we find the most pleasure and which benefit us the most.

Jane Adams found that she was living a lonesome life of luxury and ease. In a selfish mannr she had given no thought to the poor and needy, but had spent all of her time with things which only the rich can have

Compliments

FIELD'S SHOE DEPT.

B. Wise and C. Wise School Shoes WISE SHOE CO. 320 DeSiard St. Phone 500

TRAIN To Think HART'S

THE STORE THAT SELLS

Fresh Candy

MRS. SNYDER'S HOME-MADE CANDY

The most convenient place in Monroe to buy Magazines and Out-of-Town Newspapers

L. J. HART

Lobby Ouachita Bank

I. W. Allen

Monroe, La.

A. & W. SANDWICH SHOP Depression Special

(Until Further Notice)

HAM OR BACON, AND TWO EGGS BUTTERED TOAST AND GRITS COFFEE, ROOT BEER OR BOTTLE MILK

25 Cents

(Regular Price 45 Cents)

326 DeSiard Street

SEEN ON DE SIARD ST. SATURDAY, JANUARY 23

A sight seen on DeSiard street Saturday, January 23, was Mr. Dedditt attentively gazing at Sonny's $500,000 collection of notorious gangsters. The lifelike models were only wax but Professor Redditt was taking much interest in them. Whether his intention was to take notes on being a robber (on account of business depression) or just to amuse himself remains for us to Miss Adams moved from her beautiful home and gave herself to charitable work of all kinds. Thus, she found happiness in a way quite different from what might have been expected of a woman in her position.

The study of the biographies of famous men is one of the best ways to get the good things out of life. The life of Abraham Lincoln makes one a better person; it shows us the way to success by perseverance.

Martin Luther had a great conviction in life. He left the church because he thought some of its doctrines were wrong. He believed that he was right in doing what he did, and, therefore lived up to his conviction and was happy because he had accomplished something worth while.

Friends are the most important pings of life. "We are known things of life. by the company we keep. How do we form our friendships? Do we just drift into them, or do we actually select those whom we would be proud to call friends? One may be lifted up or dragged down, according to the persons he chooses as companions. Be careful, therefore, in the selection of your friends."

After a prayer led by Mr. Gerald, the assembly was dismissed by Mr. Colvert.

> Come and See WILL ATKINSON

BALTIMORE MARBLE RESTAURANT

For your Haircuts, Manicures and Shoe Shines go to CLOUATRE BARBER SHOP 117 N. 2nd St. Phone 3365

Brief Review Of Student Activities

(Continued from page one) of budding authors, , are making plans to put out collection of their literary efforts by the end of the year.

A growing club of the latest principles has just been formedthe infamous Whisken Club, By growing is meant the successful output of nature's camouflage on the faces of some of our he-men students. Alas, several were ask. ed to resign when for some unexplained reason no evidence that is vital to membership appeared upon their countenances.

And now comes the scoop of the day-the Old Maids' Club. This group, not to be outdone by the men, have banded together for mutual consolation, Their by-word is "Pure and unsoiled we stand, depending not on any man." This organization is the women's way of retaliation for the conduct of the Whisker Club.

Amos: What's the difference between a kimona and a banana? "Jew": I don't know. I never slipped on a banana.

Report: How's the team com-Coach: Just like counterfeit money; the halves are full of lead and the quarters can't pass.

Why's your face so red?" "Cause."

'Cause what?" "Causemetics."

MILLER & KAHN

126 DeSiard Street

Compliments of

Dixie Sandwich Shop

407 Walnut

Phone 9134

GLASS AUTO - WINDOW - MIRRORS

Monroe Glass Co. 208 N. Second St., Phone 4600

Compliments of

Ferd Levi Stationery Co.

107 DeSiard, Corner Walnut

Phone 208

West Side CAFE

C. G. Wall, Jr., and S. O. Wood

Owners and Operators

BETTER MEALS AT LOWER COST