FACULTY ENJOY SHORT HOLIDAY

The members of the faculty spent the Christmas holidays in many different ways, enjoying them to the utmost.

Miss Veal returned to her home in South Carolina and had a "glorious good time."

Miss Turner went to Springfield, Missouri, where there was a family reunion.

Miss Baker visited relatives in Columbia, Missouri. On December 28th and 29th she attended the semi-centennial meeting of the Modern Language Association of America held in the new Hotel Jefferson, St. Louis. While there she had the privilege of hearing many fine speakers, and of seeing the Spanish play "Cradle Song," by Sierra.

Mr. Smith visited his home in Ruston, and several other Louisiana cities.

Miss Blackmon spent her holidays in Monroe.

Mr. Hammond returned to his home in Louisville, Kentucky.

Miss Null visited in Oklahoma City and Fort Worth, Texas.

Mr. Redditt spent his vacation in Monroe and Columbia.

Miss Clay has her mother and brother with her now. They have settled in an apartment on North Fourth street, and intend to reside here.

Both Miss Wolfe and Miss Marshall remained in Monroe during the holidays.

DRAMATICS CLUB REVIEWS BOOKS

With the Christmas holidays in the background, the Dramatics Club of the Ouachita Junior College began the new term with a special meeting held January fifth, in order that plans could be made for the future.

The meetings was opened by a very interesting review of Jumeo Barrie's play, "Twelve Pound Luck," made by Mrs. Lillian Williamson. After this Mrs. Emma Alexander talked about the plans for the future and appointed Alice Daimwood to give a review of one of Barrie's plays at the meeting on Tuesday, January 16th.

Plans for three one act plays were made and these, which are now in the making, will be put on at a night performance soon.

PLAY PRESENTED BY THEATRE GUILD

The Ouachita Junior College Guild Players presented "Tricks and Hearts," a short once-act play, in the college auditorium Thursday, Dec. 21, to a very appreciative student body.

The entire cast, considering the very short time of preparation, did creditable work. The cast was as follows:

Charlotte Blake—Francis Browning.
Beatrice Blake—Juliet Daimwood.
Elizabeth Wood—Ella Mae Herren.
Eller Moore—Alice Daimwood.
Estelle Vaughn—Henrietta Swayze.
Dr. Wm. Burton—John Winkler.

Mr. W. R. Hammond, history instructor at Junior College, substituted for President Colvert in teaching a class in parliamentary law at the First Baptist Church Monday night.

RESOLUTIONS FOR TEACHERS

I hereby resolve to refrain from shooting fireworks in the corridors, and wearing my hat in the office.—C. C. Covert.

I hereby unconditionally resolve not to use incorrect English or slang no more - - you betcha life!—Mrs. Renick.

I, Rosa Veal, resolve to transfer the new sparkle in my eyes to one on the third finger of the left hand.

I hereby resolve to let all my gym classes play checkers and cards in order to keep the boys from rubbing the varnish off my pretty maple floor with their elbows, ears and etc. (The etc. do the most damage.)—Coach.

I may be quoted as saying that in accepting the spirit of the new year I resolve to make an inquiry in the office and find out what days I have classes and what hours they meet, or approximately so.—Mr. Redditt.

I just hope all my troubles for the new year will be little ones.—Dr. Albritton.

I hereby resolve to grade on the curve (see Mae West).—Mr. Smith.

I, Kathryn M. Wolfe, resolve to continue my search for an easy chair, hoping I may eliminate the seat of my troubles.

I hereby resolve not to allow another "single" year pass.—W. R. Hammond.

I hereby resolve to change my occupation from Baker to cook.—Miss Baker.

I resolve to spend less time in the whirl of society and get down to business.—Miss Turner.

I demand one night a week out! Well, that is, if I may have one night out every once in a while—"Doc"

I resolve to "marshal" the forces of Albritton.

the enemy sex for a review of reviews.—Miss Marshall.

I hereby resolve to break more hearts and fewer bones.—Miss Null.

I hereby resolve to stop being A flat and B natural or to go on a search for The Lost Chord.—Mr. Frisbie.

All I ask of 1934 is to find out who spits tobacco juice behind the radiators.—Cox.

I hereby resolve not to read "Whiz Bang" while on duty in the library.—Mary Clay.

Resolved, for my diet's sake, to stop tasting foods while they're being prepared.—Mrs. Mouk.

MIR. MORRISON IS ILL AT CLINIC

Mr. Morrison, engineering instructor, is seriously ill at the clinic. He will not be able to teach for the remainder of this term. Mr. D. X. Ellett, who received his engineering degree at the University of Illinois, is taking Mr. Morrison's place.

KOMMON KRACKS

Tom Sullivan: "I was just kinda thinking to myself."

Mr. Hammond: "Oh, I mustn't forget to write that in my new diary."

Ann.e Mae Smith: "Aw-w-w."

Maude Warner: "Child, I never open my mouth."

Y.M.C.A. INVITES NEW MEMBERS

A brief summary of some of the undertakings the Y. M. C. A. has accomplished during the month of December is as follows:

On "Radio Day" very interesting programs were given by the president, Walter McGee, about the founding of the Y. M. C. A., and Charles Freeman, who had charge of the daily devotional.

Upon motion made by Carl Barton and seconded by J. N. Davis, two dollars were given to the Good Fellows Fund.

On Friday, December 15th, the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. gave a party.

Tommy Zeagler suggested we have a tournament to find out who the champion checker player of the organization is—only members of the "Y" are eligible.

"Whether the Y. M. C. A. shall sponsor a Dance" is the subject of a debate whose outcome is expected soon, Charles Freeman upholding the negative side and Kurl Stevenson the affirmative.

On the last day of college before the Yuletide holidays began the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. sponsored a Christmas tree party. Sam Cloyd acting as Santa Claus came down the chimney and began distributing about five hundred presents to members of the faculty and student body.

Books are now open for membership. Those who wish to join will please make application before February sixth. All who desire membership are invited to attend our meetings in person. The meetings are held every Wednesday at activity period unless announced otherwise.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS MEETS

Le Cercle Francais Held its first meeting last month. Election of officers was as follows: President, Dorothy Flanagan; Vice President, Hazel Mitchell; Secretary and Treasurer, Sara Elizabeth Moffett; Reporter, Sadye Lou Peters. At the next meeting, which will be sometime this month, a study of Paris will be the chief topic on program.

"BOO" AT THE BOOK STORE

No doubt you are all wondering who the attractive young lady now running the book store is. She is Miss Elizabeth Clark, better known as "Boo." Miss Clark is a native of Monroe and a graduate of the University of Texas. She says that she's just "wild" about her first job, and we all hope she'll be with us the rest of the term.

P. C. B. CLUB

The P. C. B. club has been admitted to the Students Science Club. Henceforth it is to be known as United States Club No. 109, Louisiana Club No. 2.

The mascot of the club is Blue Billed Horn Winged Isotope, drawn by Herbert Dickard, secretary. This lengthy-named article was printed in a recent issue of the Science Leaflet, a publication exclusively for beginners of Science.

Christmas greetings were received from Pauline Berry, editor of Science Leaflet.

Freshmen who are eligible for membership will be initiated at the beginning of next term.

FIRST HONOR ROLL 10 WEEKS

All students who are enrolled for twelve hours of work or more and make an average grade point of 4.99 or above for a semester are placed on the first honor roll.

Miriam Swinebroad, Center, Texas, 5.05.

Lillian H. Williamson, 2000 Riverside, 5.36.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Vacation and Christmas will have to fade,

Because it is time resolutions were made,

The instructors' resolutions seemingly say,

"From now on there'll be all work and no play."

The Juniors, too, look for more sport, Which is—lots of fun and better places to court.

The Seniors resolve in a moderate way,

To have themes ready on the appropriate day.

But, students all! Don't get on your ear,

Resolutions are just made to be broken next year.

—Dorothy Kizer.

LIBRARY CLUB GIVES PARTY

The Christmas holidays were inaugurated on Tuesday, December 19th, 1933, at a party given by the Library club at the home of Carolyn Walker. The Christmas decorations gave the house a delightfully cheery air. A "Chalk-Talk" was given by Miss Rosalyn Blackmon after which she gave a Christmas monologue. To give a good ending to the "Chalk-Talk" Mrs. Mary Louise Lambert and Miss Blackmon rendered a song.

Miss Rachel Haynes had charge of the games. She picked games that kept the club laughing and thinking at the same time. Miss Haynes also had charge of the Christmas tree that was looked forward to the whole evening. A gift was made to each member.

After the distribution of the gifts, refreshments were served.

Entered as second-class matter January 5, 1932, at the post office at Monroe, Louisiana, under the Act of March 3, 1870.

WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH THE NEW YEAR?

With the ushering in of a new year come new thoughts, higher ideals—not that we should not strive toward them all of the time—and resolutions to put our best foot forward and do better the important things we have been trying to do in the past.

In order to accomplish this, it is necessary that we take inventory of ourselves. Is every ounce of our potential energy being used to the greatest advantage? Are we working until it hurts? Are we enjoying our school work and living so that others seeing us are happy to be alive? If not, then we should check up on ourselves and make a resolution now to do our best in the new term of work that is upon us; to co-operate more than we ever have to make Ouachita Junior College the best institution of its kind; and finally, to "Resolve to be thyself and know that he who finds himself loses his miseries."

NEW YEAR'S WISH

I cannot wish you only—"Happy New Year!"
I wished you that last year, yet now I know
These last twelve months have brought you loss and sorrow,
And fear of poverty, and kindred woe.
Still, as this New Year breaks in star-gemmed splendor,
I see you undefeated; something fine Released in you for all that you have suffered,
As if, on the horizon, you saw a sign.
Of life's endurance past each tribulation,

Of man's long courage, and of God's wide care!
I know you wish not simply to be happy—
But to keep clear the will and faith to dare!

SOCIETY NEWS

By SADIE RUTH BUCKNER

Among the holiday activities during the past week was the bridge party by Misses Ella Rose Crawford and Sadye Lou Peters, given in the home of the latter.

Tables reflecting a crimson and green color scheme were arranged in the spacious reception rooms, which were beautifully decorated, and other evergreens suggestive of the holiday season.

An attractive bridge set was given for high score and a lovely compact for consolation.

Luscious refreshments carrying out the red and green color scheme were served to the following college co-eds and others: Misses Priscilla Butler, Sadie Ruth Buckner, Clarissa Davis, Mary Mulhern, Hazel Mitchell, "Chunky" Gray, "Rusty" Hunt, Gertrude Brauer, Mildred Breard, and Sara Elizabeth Moffett.

Dill-Webb Marriage

The affectionate and sincere interest of countless friends in this section of the state is centered in the marriage of Miss Margaret Dill, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dill of this city, and Mr. William Webb, also of Monroe. Saturday, December 30th, at the home of Rev. W. C. Scott, pastor of the First Methodist church of Monroe, was performed the beautiful ceremony at seven-thirty p. m. in the presence of a few intimate friends and members of the immediate family.

An improvised altar, fashioned of southern smilax and clusters of glowing poinsettias was reared in one end of the living room, before which the vows were spoken.

The bride wore a beautiful advance spring model of copenhagen blue with accessories to match. An exquisite corsage of bridal roses added a distinctive touch.

The only attendants were Miss Merle Mullins, Frank P. Standley, and the bride's brother, Herbert Dill.

Miss Dill is a member of the 1933 graduating class of Ouachita Parish Junior College.

Miss Miriam Swinebroad returned to Center, Texas, to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Swinebroad.

Miss Kathleen Crow was numbered among those going home for the holidays, to spend the short time with

COLVERT'S CORNER

The fact that Ouachita Junior College has had fewer students to drop from college this year than in the previous years shows that a large number of the students who enrolled this year enrolled with the serious determination to complete their work. There are only three weeks left in this semester, which means only about ten or eleven more class days or four to eight more recitations in each subject before the final examinations. Let me urge you to check with your instructors as to just how you stand, and then if extra work is needed, see to it that you do it. Registration for the second semester will begin January 30th. Several new students have already indicated their desire to enroll then.

her parents in Arkansas.

Miss Geneva Castles and parents spent Christmas in Mississippi with relatives.

Keeney Devereaux, former student of junior college, now on the Illinois boat, visited his fellow-students during the holidays.

Howard Griffin, former editor of the Pow Wow, visited at junior college the day before vacation.

Students from various colleges spent the Christmas holidays here with their parents. Those visiting junior college, their Alma Mater, were Ella Pearl Sutton, Wesleyan; Dorothy Guerriero, University of Oklahoma; Sara Hammonds, La. Tech.; Helen McCormick, La. Tech.; Ross Banister, L. S. U.; Jessie Gray Worthington, L. S. U.; Joel Nichols, L. S. U.; George Buckner, L. S. U.; "Pinhead" Cason, L. S. U.; Boyd Grant, L. S. U., and Charles Cascio, L. S. U.

Miss Evelyn Hill of West Monroe spent several days in Arkansas last week. She was privileged to go on a hunting party while there.

Miss Sara Florence Coon spent most of her holidays in Baton Rouge as the guest of a friend.

Coach J. Paul Kemerer was suddenly called home last week-end by the death of his mother.

PAN-AM BEATS SENIORS' TEAM

Pan-Am defeated the Ouachita Seniors 40-33 in one of the roughest games played in the city league this season. With the sure shots of Florsheim and E. Warner the Seniors easily led at the half 29 to 10.

The Senior second team started the second half, but had to be replaced by the first string when Fulton, Pan-Am center, started a spirited attack which the Seniors couldn't halt.

The Seniors lost one of their best cagers when Florsheim was taken from the game with four fouls.

E. Warner was high scorer for the evening with six field goals and four free throws to account for 16 of the Seniors' points. Fulton led his team with 14 points.

GROUCHES AND GRINS

The following thoughts were never intended for publication. They were scribbled down from time to time for the same reason that a man leans over the rail of a ship on his first sea voyage. He is not interested in fish-culture, and has no grudge against the ocean. He simply feels he has something he must give up.

No one enjoys a fuzzy mouth, a parched throat, or a splitting headache, but the worse you feel next morning, the jollier time you must have had the night before. Remember that and cheer up.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

We had a nice long holiday From our learning institutions, And it gave us plenty of time to write Our New Year resolutions.

It's always been this way with me: Though I take great pains to make 'em,

The more good rules I plan to keep, The harder I work to break 'em.

Now, I played a trick on myself this year.

I resolved to be late every day, And get by just any old way,

So if I keep my "resolves" this year, They way I've kept all the rest,

And do the reverse of all I planned,

I'll be Junior College's best! —James Hollingsworth.
