

The Pow Wow Newspaper

3-30-1934

The Pow Wow, March 30, 1934

Heather Pilcher
pilcher@ulm.edu

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.ulm.edu/pow_wow

Recommended Citation

Pilcher, Heather, "The Pow Wow, March 30, 1934" (1934). The Pow Wow Newspaper. 36.
https://repository.ulm.edu/pow_wow/36

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by ULM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Pow Wow Newspaper by an authorized administrator of ULM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact lowe@ulm.edu.

WOLFE GOES TO NEW ORLEANS

Last week at the State Convention of Chemists held in Baton Rouge, Miss Kathryn Wolfe, science instructor, represented Ouachita Junior College and gave the most important speech of the occasion. The subject of her address was, "The Importance of Chicory in the Composition of Cafeteria Coffee." Miss Wolfe proved beyond a doubt that the presence of the coffee bean is a non-essential in this delightful drink, particularly when it is served to college professors. "Drugged as these poor creatures already are by deep draughts from the fountain of knowledge, they need only a very mild stimulant," declared Miss Wolfe.

Big shots of the meet were enthusiastic over Miss Wolfe's discoveries in this new field of research. For the rest of the three-day meeting she was sought out for private conferences and was guest-of-honor at numerous banquets.

Miss Wolfe returned to her duties here Monday with new vision—having got her eyes full many times on the trip.

While away Miss Wolfe visited with distinguished friends in Baton Rouge and was shown the most interesting sights of the city.

DON'T READ! CAUSE JASON WRIT THIS

Without a doubt all entertainment of the current year will be put completely in the shade of the apple tree when the kollege minstrel comes off April 6th.

Miss Anne Marshall in her own and inevitable style has labored with this bunch of stupid tackles, thickheaded guards, and hair-brain halfbacks till her brow refuses to sweat any more.

As for what's coming off we can't promise a thing—but whatever happens will be good. The characters alone should be enough guarantee for your money. Who would be better for end-men than those four lunatics, Leo Ticheli, John Frantom, "Big Square-head" Davis, and Jason Berry. They are ably assisted by "Jinks" Ziegler and Nellie Beard, who's hilarious jokes and clever songs will keep the audience (if there happens to be any) in a constant turmoil (getting out of the auditorium).

We can't forget (and you who go on't be able to forget) Milton Coverdale's noise makers—they made a big hit at the deaf and dumb institution their "previous engagement."

We tried to obtain an interlocutor from this fore-named institute, but as one could not be gotten, Nelson Bland was humored and given the job.

A chorus capable of awakening the dead and killing the living, will add further torture by rendering a few songs and three buckets of Mrs. Tucker's best shortening.

That is not all on the program but all that will probably be shown, on account of an over-ripe vegetable and fruit shower which will intervene after the first five minutes of action!

A concert is being contemplated in which Mr. J. Paul Kemerer will do his celebrated fan dance. Now, can you afford to miss it?

Mr. Embry has resigned his studies at O.J.C. and is now going to O.P.H.S. Says it saves him the trouble of having to go there so much.

IN THE EASTER PARADE

Miss Kathryn Wolfe as she appeared in her new Easter bonnet at the State Chemists' Convention held recently in Baton Rouge.

DISTINCTIVE PLAY GIVEN MARCH 32

The auditorium of Ouachita Junior College was the scene of the most distinctive play of the season on the evening of March the 32nd. The production was under the direction of Miss Tellum Alexander, graduate of the Shinney Fine Arts School. The title of the play was not made public, but after all, even in the business world, all the products are not named.

In spite of the fact that the Marathon-Walkathon was in full swing the first two rows of the middle section were crowded—chiefly with the ushers and the relatives of the players.

The cast of characters evidenced great skill on the part of the director. Each actor fit his part like a glove. Frances Jones, in the role of Eve, vied with Greta Garbo in vamping qualities, and Julius Cahn as the blushing Atom was unique in his part. The Snake-in-the-Grass was portrayed with natural ease by Roger Frysbee, who has had much experience in such parts. The apple would have been eaten but for the presence of a coy little worm (part taken by Nelson Bland).

The conclusion was rather doubtful, as all the players were driven from the garden by a shower of rotten tomatoes before the curtain accidentally fell on "The Last Round-Up."

MISS DAVENPORT WINS SUIT AGAINST R. N. DAVIS

Monday the jurors in the Davenport-Davis case returned a verdict of guilty as charged. Sentence pronounced was that Davis should pay the complainant the sum of one dollar, pay all court costs, and return the pieces of the broken heart.

At the end of the session, Miss Davenport threw her arms, sobbing, around the necks of the jurors, who congratulated her on her taking ways and extended best wishes for future conquests. Mr. Davis also sobbed at the announcement of the verdict whether out of sympathy or, which is more likely, because he has no idea where he will get the necessary dollar.

Nobody but DeBlieux knows it yet—sssh—he has a crush on Clair Terzia.

Do opposites attract? We think so, and so do J. Cahn and "Kat" Adams, who were seen strolling down the hall deep in conversation one misty moisty morning.

'F. D.' PUTS JR. COLL. ON DOLE

New jobs for everyone! Our president is out to show that he is a jolly good fellow and willing that everyone should get his sack full. We have a striking example in our own library at Junior College. The noxious odor of graft and greed fairly swats one in the face as he crosses the threshold. Mme. Jinks is a staunch Republican, so the administration was only too eager to award her a fat, flush and jam-up government contract. This demagogue of public office knocks down on the cash register to such an extent that the whole thing smells to high heaven.

All is not yet lost. We now turn to a brighter side of the picture and follow our young stalwarts out to the flower beds that must needs be hoed with tender, saving grace. Yonder is DeeBlooey, man of the down trodden and champion of all oppressed. Yonder he stands, musing upon the burdens which lie heavily upon his sympathetic brow. Here we have young Ace Warner, popular sport about the village, tentatively hefting a long hoe. Yoo hoo! Amos!

Cox sits back in restful ease. He never did do any work, so he feels entirely natural overseeing the labors of his young hopefuls. He is now influentially interested in a local share-the-wealth society and he and Mr. Long have very weighty conferences together by telephone. Mr. Cox has nothing definite to give to the press as yet, but he plans to take Mr. Roosevelt into his confidence in the near future.

It is not generally known as yet but the government is going to be rather bashful and very painfully reticent about paying off these hard-working and deserving laborers in the cause of education. They intend to put out about as much as a two-bit slot machine. The officials are now considering whether or not they shall respond to Pres. Colvert's application for a job. Even all the teachers are clamoring for an opportunity to board the gravy-train.

Y. W. C. A. NEWS

The main feature of the Y. W. C. A. meeting held March 21 was a talk on "The Institution of Matrimony," by Mrs. Collins. Naturally, the announcement of this subject aroused such enthusiasm among the coeds that all standing room in the Y. W. den was taken and a chance to listen through the keyhole was at a premium.

Among other interesting topics touched on by the speaker were the main cause of divorce. "One of the chief reasons for the frequency of divorce in America," stated the speaker, "is that too many men snore in their sleep and dunk their toast. Another is the fact that back in the period of the American Revolution one woman said 'give me liberty or give me death'. From that time women of America have had independence."

Well! Can you beat this? The other nite when we stepped into KMLB, guess who Eddie Vorhoff had sitting on top of the piano to inspire him—none other than Miss Mary Burt R.

To the good sports who enjoy this issue—you're welcome!
To the kickers—try it yourself once!

'CHUNKIE' GIVES WAY TO 'J. D.' AS HEAD OF H. S. S.

After the First Honor Roll had been posted, it was found necessary to make several changes in the Honor Scholastic Society.

Mr. J. D. DeBlieux will take the place of Miss Louise Gray as president. Besides the president, the following members were asked to resign from the organization: Misses Clarissa Davis, Dorothy Flanagan, Alberta McWilliams, Beatrice Rhymes, Clara Gallman, and Messrs. Edward Reeves, Joseph Amman, and Mrs. Fred Williams.

Following the installation of new officers last Friday morning the Society members went to the auditorium, where they were delightfully entertained for the next hour.

The program featured Miss Clay in the latest rendition of the fan dance. Following this the audience comfortably relaxed while Miss Turner warbled, "This Little Pig Went To Market." Miss Wolfe and Mr. Smith engaged in a heated debate on "Let's Go Native," Mr. Smith being a strong advocate of the "Back to Nature" movement. The question was left to the house, and the affirmative won by a vote of 26 to 3. Speedy application will be made to the nearest "Native" colony for admission. With Mr. Colvert at the piano, the students stood and sang the National Anthem of the Society, "Yes, Sir, That's My Baby." Beer and pretzels were served to the guests.

The meeting adjourned, all resolving:

"Yea though we stamp through the hal' yelling loudly we will fear no punishment."

DR. HIRSCH TALKS AT P.C.B. MEETING

With remarkable promptness the members of the P.C.B. Club quietly filed into the Chemistry room for their regular meeting last Tuesday. After a check of the roll, which showed a 100% attendance, the red-headed president heartily congratulated the lagging members for their persistence in not paying their dues.

The minutes were correct at this meeting—I guess they'll be correct at the next meeting too, because we have a good secretary.

About this time Dr. Albritton rushed in with a hearty laugh and joined the mob.

Dr. I. Hirsch, prominent physician, was then introduced as the speaker of the day. His address, "The History of Medicine," dealt with the story of the profession from the time of the ancient Egyptians down to the present day. Several great men of medicine, taken from all ages, were discussed in connection with the discovery of remedies for various forms of illness. Quite a number of prominent men in this field were found to be natives of our own state.

After the close of the address, which was well received by the brilliant audience, the meeting was adjourned.

And, oh yeah! Dr. Colvert, Miss Baker, Miss Marshall, and Dr. Albritton were there, too.

Mr. J. N. Davis is now writing two books—"How to Win Her," and "Say It With Words."

THE POW WOW

Official Publication of the Student Body of Ouachita Parish Junior College, Monroe, Louisiana.

Published every two weeks during school year..

WALTER McGEE	Editor
EDDIE VORHOFF	Associate Editor
BEATRICE FORREST	Assistant Editor
J. D. DeBLIEUX	Business Manager
JAMES B. TISDALE	Circulation Manager
ELLA ROSE CRAWFORD	Exchange Editor
ED GILL	Sports Editor
B. H. MYERS	Sports Writer
SADIE RUTH BUCKNER	Society Editor
MADIE MILLS	Feature Writer
CECILE SMITH	Feature Writer
LILLIAN H. WILLIAMSON	Feature Writer
LOUISE GRAY	News Editor
MARGARET BOOTH	Editorial Writer
JOSEPHINE COATES	Proofreader
BESS CRIDER PENICK	Advisor

—REPORTERS—

Eleona Brinsmade, Clara Gallman, Mary Louise Lambert, Nellie Breard, Geneve Castles, Sara Elizabeth Moffett, Sadie Lou Peters, Herbert Dickard, Evelyn Hill, Fred Ammons, Karl Stevenson, Clarissa Davis, Gertrude Brauer, Julius Cann, Dorothy Kizer.

Five Cents Per Copy

Associated Collegiate Press

1933 NATIONAL COVERAGE 1934

Entered as second-class matter January 5, 1932, at the post office at Monroe, Louisiana, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Now that the time for the April Fool issue of the Pow Wow has dawned, it is high time that the staff extend their sincere thanks and deepest appreciation to the student body for their untiring support during the first semester.

Never has a student body been so ready to congratulate the staff on the work that they do and for the time that they spend in order that the Pow Wow may appear every two weeks. Never has a student body given such wonderful support in regard to the gathering up of material for the paper. Never has a student body been so thoughtful in regard to the destroying of the Pow Wow by throwing it down in the halls, rooms, and the gym. It is a fact indeed that no other group of students could do so much to make the paper an outstanding success. Truly there is no better school spirit shown by volunteering to help prepare the paper than that shown by our own students.

In the halls of many colleges there can be heard all kinds of opinions in regard to their school paper. It is spoken of in unfair, unmanly-like, and unsportsman-like terms. But, in the halls of O.P.J.C., the students possess more school spirit and show a deeper appreciation toward their paper. So, let us congratulate our students for the fair, sportsman-like attitude that they take. —April Fool!

KOLLEGE KO-EDS GO "BACKWARD"

Last Friday nite the Koeds of Ouachita Junior Kollege threw one of the ritziest backward dances since Eve was a deb. The Kollege Gym was a blaze of color and light, especially light-headedness.

Among this charming group of intimates who gathered at this unseemly hour were noted several who were distinguished by Parisian creations straight from the Woman's Shop. Miss Louise Gray was dressed in a gown of rich seagreen with a flowing train of rarest purple. Miss Sadie Buckner wore a concoction of lavender and old lace, and Mrs. Louise Lambert appeared in a quaint little model trimmed in ermine.

Jazz was furnished by Milly Cloverdale and his four-leaves, who beat their tin pans with a rhythm which made even the electric lights dance.

The guests were: Miss Ama Lee Null, Pres. and Mrs. Colvert Dr. and Mrs. Albritton, Mr. and Mrs. Younse, Mr. and Mrs. Coverdale, Mrs. E. H. Hill. Chaperones were, Johnny Holmes and Georgine Cole, Sadie Ruth Buckner and Walter Lee Hill, Nellie Breard and Johnny Frantom, Frances Browning and Dan Moore, Tommy Zeigler and Sadie Lou Peters, Jimmie Tisdale and Louise Gray, Oghourne Rawlinson and Mabel Davenport, Jane Gregory and Henry Florsheim, Doc Devereaux and Louise Wood, Mrs. and Mr. Ivy McDonald, Doris Davenport and Harvey Gregg, Caroline Meyers and Durwood Griffin, Rogers Warner and Maude Warner, Walter McGee and "Jinks" Zeigler, Mrs. Dorothy Gray as she appeared at the walkathon last evening, modishly attired in a chic coat suit.

Mary Jeanette Zeigler and Jimmy Dawson, and others. There was also any number of stags staggering about.

SOCIETY NEWS

By SADIE RUTH BUCKNER

Miss Wolfe, a professor in the speech department, attended the Student Science Convention at Washington, D. C. last week-end. At the convention she delivered a splendid address on the NRA.

Mr. Milton Coverdale spent an enjoyable week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coverdale of Monroe.

Miss Sara Elizabeth Moffett spent last week-end in Baton Rouge with her brother who is professor of the math department at L.S.U.

Mrs. Penick spent last week-end with her husband, who is now manager of the Bessemer Steel Works of Pittsburg, Pa.

Miss Mary Mulhern was the much featured guest this past week of Miss Sadye Lou Peters on Morris avenue.

Mr. Henry Florsheim has been seriously ill the past week with indigestion.

Miss Ella Rose Crawford and family have just recently moved into their beautiful hotel on the Loop road, where she will be delighted to have her friends call.

Terzia-Reynolds

Mr. and Mrs. Fensky Terzia wish to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter Clara Virginia to Mr. John Reynolds son of Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds of Winnfield, La., the event will be celebrated April 1, 1934.

Chase-Woods

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase at this time take great pleasure in announcing the engagement of their daughter

GOING TO California?

Send for book with complete descriptions on Where-to-go and What-to-see. No obligation P. G. B. MORRIS CLARK TRAVEL SERVICE HOTEL CLARK, Los Angeles, Cal. FREE

See Our
EASTER
Display
MARY'S
FLOWER SHOP

JULIUS & SON
426 DeSiard St.
MAKERS OF Fine Clothes

COLVERT'S CORNER

The spirit of endeavor is a wonderful thing. One endeavors to eat peas with a fork when natively one wishes to eat them with a knife. We mean, of course, to convey the peas to one's mouth.

One also endeavors to eat soup with the maximum of silence and the minimum of noise, but by nature one wishes to make as much noise while eating soup as a jazz orchestra. Of course, we do not mean the noise the jazz orchestra makes while eating soup, but the noise (or is it noises?) it (or is it they?) invents while making music.

By and large every Junior College student endeavors to make 'A'. Of course, some naturally make a 'D', or an 'F', or a 'B', or a 'C'. Nevertheless, it is always a "something".

C. C. COLVERT, President.

Margaret to Mr. Risdon Wood
son of Mr. and Mrs. William
Wood of this city.

Entertainment

"The Davis Brothers," Carl and J. N., entertained with an elaborate formal dance at the Frances Hotel last Friday night. The roof was a scene of beautiful spring flowers—pink, silver, and green being the color scheme. The many friends who were privileged to dance by the music of Paul Whiteman's orchestra were Misses Dorothy Calvert, Ella Mae Herrin, Sara May Adams, Sara Florence Coon, Geneva Castle, Louise Wood, Sady Lou Peters, Carolyn Walker, Sadie Ruth Buckner, Miriam Signboard, Frances Browning, Louise Crimes, Maud Warner, Louise Grey, Beverly Russell, Doris Davenport, Jessie Grey Worthington, Sara Hammond, Hazel Mitchell, Georgine Cole; Messrs. Kent Breard, John Holmes, Dan Moore, John Reynolds, Turner Reynolds, Jason Berry, Fred Becket, Herbert Dickard, George Bolton, James Tisdale, Nelson Bland, Roy Hale, Tom Sullivan, John Roberts, Walter McGee, J. D. DeBlieux, Frank Cane, Turner Alexander, Charles Boyd, Woodrow Wilson, Herbert Cooper, George Buckner, Milton Coverdale, T. J. Coenan. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Colvert, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Albritton, Mr. and Mrs. M. Coverdale, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Rosa Veal, and Miss Dorothy Younse.

Miss Lucile Smith and Alice Daimwood attended a children's meeting at Minden last week-end.

Two new professors, Miss Jessie G. Worthington and Mr. George B. Buckner from the Labor School of the Unknown will become members of the O.J.C. staff on April 1st.

GOING TO California?

Send for book with complete descriptions on Where-to-go and What-to-see. No obligation P. G. B. MORRIS CLARK TRAVEL SERVICE HOTEL CLARK, Los Angeles, Cal. FREE

COMPLIMENTS
OF
MARY'S
FLOWER SHOP

WALTZING TEAM WINS TAP-DANCE

No. 5 Out Dances No. 4 To Win Drinking Cup; Faculty Decides Contest

Waltzing to the accompaniment of "Prof." Frostbit's tin pan alley band and his bunch of torch singers that kept up a continuous noise, No. 5 won the huge Intramural tin cup that is symbolic of the best dancing basketball team. The exact score was not known after the scorekeeper, "Geography" Caldwell, was taken home by an ambulance after breaking out with measles during the game, and the faculty said that they would decide the rubber contest by the curve system.

No. 4 furnished the thrill of the game when their center, "Shorty" Bowen, tried to do an adagio dance while breaking for the goal. On one of his graceful leaps into the air, "Fatty" Hunter grabbed him by the heels and dashed him to the floor. At this moment "Prexy" Colvert rushed to the floor and threatened to kick him out of school for mutilating the floor when Bowen's jughead smashed a plank that will necessitate rebuilding the gym. Bowen refused to play until Mrs. Grant, physical torture teacher, had administered aid to him. The scribe was not close enough to the accident to see what she did, but evidently she sang him a love song by the way he jumped up and started prancing like a young filly in the first race of the year. During the emergency period No. 5 was entertained by their Captain Trickel, who showed them how to add on a pair of negro "dominoes." He also won five shekles during the time off from his buddies.

Johnny Q. Holmes played the best game for No. 5 although on No. 4's lineup. It is said that he amassed a fortune on the game by letting his henchmen lay bets against his team and then during the game he tossed Trickel the ball at every opportunity. No. 4 soon caught on to his trick and sent "Pudding" Aubert out to warm-

SENIOR SISSIES LOSE TO JUNIORS

After Surprise Win Junior Girls Leave For Whatwesaw Tournament

After a big upset over the Senior girls, the Junior lassies were selected to represent the Institute in the national "powder-puff" tournament at Whatwesaw, Kansas.

Behind the bombardment of the Donnell sisters, the Seniors were no match for the Junior "tomboys" who tramped any unlucky Senior that happened to come in contact with them during the game. Numerous timeouts were called by the older girls so first aid could be rendered to their injuries.

A little girl, Louise Crimes, who should be playing with the kindergarten, played the best floor game for the Seniors. In fact, she was on the floor most of the time. At times she showed she could take it and then would make flying tackles at any Junior who attempted to shoot a basket.

The exact score was not known but it seemed the Juniors won, from the "boos" the gallery gave at regular intervals.

Several fist-fights flared up in the immense crowd that had gathered to see the battle, and order was restored only after the city police had been sent for to quell the rioting student body. The riot was caused by an argument over whether the referee had the right to caution the players about using too much makeup.

The squad left by boat this morning but before he could return from his roadwork the game had turned into a regular old-fashioned "break-down" and Aubert said he could not do a square dance.

Refreshments were served after each dance by Bernice Trickel who had just returned the day before from Harrisonburg and brought back several gallons of "special" drinking water they make in his hometown.

WALKATHORN TO BE HELD BY COLLEGE

Proceeds To Be Given To The Sufferers of Athlete's Feet

On account of the increasing popularity and demand the college has decided to give the athletes of both sex a chance to show their endurance by staging a walking marathon. The walkathorn will be held under the auspices of the Economic club for the benefit of the sufferer of athlete's feet.

The gymnasium has been reserved for the contest and entries are expected to flood the mail box in a short time. Many of the most prominent students have expressed their intentions of entering the struggle.

"Clipper" Shipp has already advertised for a small and lightweight partner for the contest and is expected to team up with Beverly Russell, noted ping pong player.

President Colvert said that he would dismiss classes during the walkathorn and would give the winners two months to catch up on the missed sleep before they would be compelled to return to class.

Julius Cahn, well known for his stamina, is already a contest favorite with Shipp and it is expected that these two boys with their partners will be among the prize winners.

The sufferers of athlete's feet, a very serious ailment, have expressed their gratitude at the backers of the contest, as they say the history of the college is in danger unless this fatal disease is stamped out in a short time. The disease is said to prevail among the broken-down athletes of the school and only immediate medical attention can save their lives. Our well-known doctor, "Doc" Devereaux, has spent his entire fortune on combating the disease and he said, "other funds must be available if his humane work is to be continued."

TEA TEAM WILL BEGIN PLAY SOON

Kennedy Refuses to Play Against Women Again This Season

Headed by "Tomboy" Kennedy, who refuses to play with girls, the racket club of the institute is reorganizing and will soon go on the warpath and see if they can't wallop some sissies from the other educational schools of the Union. Practice is being held up by the shortage of balls which were stolen by members of the club last year and are only playing ping-pong to keep their eyes in shape. Some discarded balls will probably be donated by Le Cercle Francais so as to keep Henry Florsheim from attending the meetings. If this report is true, Florsheim served notice to his squad members that he will be out each afternoon taking pot-shots at any member of the "frog-club" that is in the gallery.

Florsheim, who elected himself captain, issued a statement that tea would be served after each killing; the tea is being donated by the kollege, and warned all "rough boys" to keep clear of his lads as he did not want any of them to take up the terrible habit of drinking coffee, as it is not refined for a tennis player to do so.

Other aspirants to the higher ranks who were issued formal invitations for club membership are Fredrick Williamson, Thomas Sullivan, John (Co-educational) Reynolds, Esral Jack Sellig, Junior, James Hollingsworth of the famous Worthothing family, Nit Witty Embry, the yodeling sheep herder from Colorado, "Rusty" Hunt, sister of the notorious heartbreaker "Prettyboy," and Beverly Russell, who is expected to win most of her matches by doing her "hula-hula" dance during the games.

Captain Burdette Trichell of the winning dance team and the drinking cup that went with the victory of the dance.

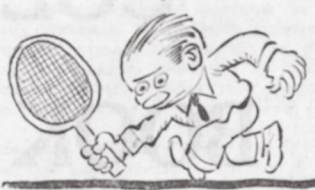

Coach J. Pauline Kemerer on one of his famous "bull" hunts in the wilds of the college gymnasium.

APRIL FOOL

If you bite down on a piece of fudge, And it's full of rocks and soap, And if you have jokes played on you Till you almost give up hope, The Scotch would call you "April Gowk," "April Fish," the French would say, But you're just a plain old APRIL FOOL In the good old U. S. A.!

—James (Holly) Hollingsworth.

Latest action picture of "Mud Horse" Florsheim, captain of the Papooses' ping pong team.

Maud Warner expects someone from Natchitoches for Easter. We hope he comes, too, Maude.

After Warming Up—Refresh Yourself

COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.

GOING TO California?

Send for book with complete descriptions on Where-to-go and What-to-see. No obligation P. G. B. MORRIS CLARK TRAVEL SERVICE HOTEL CLARK, Los Angeles, Cal. FREE

FOR YOUR TENNIS RACKETS TENNIS BALLS AND OTHER ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT, SEE TENNIS SHOES

FERD LEVI STATIONERY CO., INC.

107 DeSiard Corer Walnut

" SPORTS "

FOOTBALL - BASKETBALL BASEBALL - TENNIS - BOXING

EDITOR ED GILL

COLLEGE SHOPPER

Although Joe and Nell enter into the spirit of April Fool, they are not foolish when they do their buying. With POW WOW in hand, they begin after a COCO-COLA in the COLLEGE BOOK STORE. Nell gets flowers at MARY'S FLOWER SHOP and Joe goes to JULIUS & SON for his new suit he had made. After going by and getting the films they had developed at GRIFFIN'S STUDIO, they go to FERD LEVI STATIONERY CO., INC. for some tennis equipment. Joe completes his Easter wearing apparel at FINK, THE TAILOR. Then home to read the NEWS-STAR—and so to bed.

FIRST HONOR ROLL

Douglas Bearden, 6.00; Johnnie Holmes, 6.00; Mae Brownell, 6.00; Viola Mae McCarty, 6.00; Sara Gulley, 6.00; Rush Poulan, 6.00; Louis Toombs, 6.00; John Reynolds, 5.94; Leo Tieheli, 5.50; Risdon Wood, 5.00; Carl Davis, 5.00; Charles Boyd, 5.00; Louise Crymes, 5.00; Dot Kizer, 5.00.

POLY. SCI. CLUB FEATURES PREXY IN TAP DANCE

Wednesday, April 22, at activity period the honorary political science fraternity held its regular meeting. The president, Miss Achsah Belt, mounted Coach Kemerer's desk and called the meeting to order. The secretary read the minutes, which lasted for hours. An invitation for new members was given and approximately 999 people were taken in.

The meeting was then turned over to Coach Kemerer. In order to put the members in a good humor for the 3 hour talk he later gave, he first served everyone with black coffee. In the course of the speaker's talk he stated that the name "Rhodie" has been adopted as a suitable nickname for the fraternity. He also said that because of the fact prosperity was once again with us the dues of the fraternity had been changed from $5 to $500. This statement brought applause from the audience which lasted for fully five minutes.

President Colvert, the guest artist on the program, offered a very clever little tap dance while the entire club sang "My Ole Fraternity Pin."

The meeting adjourned at 1:10, and everybody is anxiously awaiting the next meeting in view of the fact that it will also be a "wow"!

J. D. DeBLIEUX

Agent for PERSONAL, SOCIAL, AND
BUSINESS STATIONERY
AND CALLING CARDS; ALSO
BABY VISITING CARDS

Wonder why James Hollingsworth couldn't hear the crock rattling Friday nite after the weiner roast?

Miss Sadie Ruth Buekner has a visitor from Penn State, and oh, is she thrilled! Ask her who he is.

GOING TO California?
Send for book with complete descriptions on Where-to-go and What-to-see. No obligation
P. G. B. MORRIS
CLARK TRAVEL SERVICE
HOTEL CLARK, Los Angeles, Cal. FREE

SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY

Wilson Brothers Sleeveless Sweaters, $1.00
Blue, Tan, Black. $1.00 values

Wilson Brothers Socks 25c

Undershirts and Shorts, 35c each. $1.00
3 Garments for

JUST RECEIVED

New Shipment White Broadcloth Shirts

Special, $1.39, or

2 for $2.70

FINK, THE TAILOR

334 DeSiard Street

Monroe, La.

Have Your Kodak Films Developed
And Printed At

EIGHT HOUR SERVICE

BOOKS - CANDY

COLD DRINKS

PAPER - PENCILS

ALL YOUR SCHOOL SUPPLIES

COLLEGE BOOK STORE

"Run By The College For College

Students"

Make Our Papers

Your Shopping Guide!

You can travel blocks with a turn of your head if you check your needs against the ads in this paper BEFORE you go out to buy. Reading the ads saves you shopping time and blocks of wearisome foot work because you know in advance what you want and where to get it.

PHONE
4800

News-Star--World
"TODAY'S NEWS TODAY"