Pond Sub-Private After Losing 63 1-3 Men in 'Forced' March

The Eighth Non-Service Command announced the demotion of Lt. Col. F. L. "Girdle Girded" Pond to the rank of sub-private, and the promotion of Staff Sgt. Harry "Bloody Bucket" Miller to the rank of Brigadier General last week. The shakeup came when "Girdle Girded" lost 63 1-3 men on a recent "forced" march.

"Girdle Girded's" demotion brings to an end his reign of terror and allows the battalion a chance to recuperate from the punishing walk inflicted on them last Tuesday.

Cadet Lt. Col. Robert "Dictator" Guy adequately described the treatment the men received under Pond when he told the story of what he calls "The Masacre of N.J.C."

We quote, "It was terrible. When Sgt. "Boody Bucket" and I found out about the Kernel's fiendish plan to make us march in wool uniforms under the boiling sun for 3 1-2 miles without stopping, we protested. He flew into a rage. He took off his girdle and struck "Bloody Bucket" and told me to mind my own business or I'd be shining his shoes for another week.

"Well, we left school as scheduled. When we reached the half-way mark, I looked back and saw Cadet Captain "Memphis Blues" Cox was prostrated on the ground and that his guidon bearer, Stanley "Big Boy" Passman, was frantically grabbing his leg where a snake had bitten him. Then a horrible scream was heard up in the advance guard as the first men reached the first terrible swamp. They refused to go in. "Girdle Girded" pushed his Packard up to 5 m.p.h. and in two minutes he had convinced them that they had rather face the swamp than meet the fate of the six cadets who had faced him.

"After we came out of that first h—hole, the Adjutant told him that we had lost 10 men and three must go to the hospital. He said that continuing the march would be suicide to the personnel. Pond flew into another rage and now we have a new adjutant.

"It kept on until we had lost 63 men. Then when Cadet Major Sam "Size 20 Hat" McInnis told him he couldn't find our position on the map, "Girdle Girded" calmly whacked off his head saying, "D— you McInnis. You'll

'Sweater Girl' Murderer Found Innocent by Jury

The acquittal of Massey D. "Gurgle-Goo" McConnell of the slaying of Carrie Mae "Sweater Girl" Stephenson, math instructor, was pronounced today by unanimous decision of the jury.

"Sweater Girl's" body was found in room 107 of the Fine Arts building by Gray "Ugh-Mug" Wade who reported the incident to C. C. "Cue Ball" Colvert.

"Gurgle-Goo" was charged with first degree murder on the grounds that he had no cause for his violent action of April 1, 1943.

Witnesses testified to the truth

Cuss Class Begun By Speech Sprouts

Something new has been added to radio speech class. The importance of "cuss" words in our every day conversation is being stressed by Dr. Mary Coates "Queenie" Longrich, instructor. "Queenie" says that such words aren't being used enough. She suggests that members of the class mix with students using these words so that they will become accustomed to them.

Violent changes are being made in the radio speech class. "Queenie" says our speech is becoming too highbrow and urges more profanity.

The big problem at present is persuading the local radio station to allow the language to go over the air. "Queenie" argues that it should be perfectly all right since "intelligentsia prefer and use this style of language."

Because of difficulty with the censor, actual phrases used in this class cannot be published.

Faculty Ration Racket Disclosed by F.B.I.

Music Majors Plan Heap Merrymaking

The unsuspecting music majors were summoned from their 4 a.m. practice lessons yesterday to assemble in the office of Roger "I'm It" Frisbie, head of the gang. The following announcement was made:

"Since all of you have practiced so diligently this year, the practice time will be lessened to only 15 hours. And Mr. Jones, in reward for your unequalled hard labor, you will be required to practice only two hours a day. There will be a private station-wagon to conduct you to your respective classes way over in the other campus buildings. At the end of each day, tea and biscuits will be served in the new music salon. All your friends are cordially invited.

"Next year, we hope to have some real improvements."

Following an anonymous "hot" tip, F. B. I. agents uncovered the largest organized black market since the inauguration of rationing when they raided the Northeast Junior Concentration camp faculty cache located in the upstairs stacks of the library. It was disclosed that several crooks among the faculty have been engaged in private promotions from the onset of rationing and only the babbling of Cecil "Conscience Conscious" Currie gave way their operations.

Farmer Chosen 'Miss Pig Pen'

Miss Relda "Hog Caller" Farmer was recently elected "Miss Pig Pen of 1929" because of her excellent voice for calling swine.

Upon announcement of the winner of this coveted title, Miss "Hog Caller" let out a loud "S-o-o-o-ou, Pe-e-e-g, P-e-e-g!" By-standers were startled by this sudden outburst and were almost trampled to death by a mad herd of sloppy sows which thundered in to answer her call.

"Miss Pig Pen" said at first she thought the oncoming group was N.J.C. coeds, but when she noticed they oinked instead of giggled she realized her error.

According to D. E. Tective, chief for the F. B. I. in Monroe, the organization of these hoarders, cheaters, extractors, and extortionists was superb. "Evidence of the plan," the chief said, "dates back to the time a few instructors learned of ration beating by other faculty members. Then they decided to incorporate their efforts for greater efficiency. The entire ring has been apprehended and the case is scheduled to be brought to court next week.

The criminals operated by committees, F. B. I. agents said. Each group was responsible for one particular item. Dean C. C. "Cueball" Colvert headed the superstructure and his henchmen, Roger C. "I'm It" Frisbie, W. R. "Limelight" Hammond and Dorothy "Good Deed Doty" Younse kept the committees functioning at their best.

Student Council Provides Lovelorn With Benches and Chaperones

The Student council, organization that is "The voice of the N. J. C. students," has passed the following resolutions as beneficial to students' welfare in war time.

Date Supervision

The president of the council, Prentiss "Scrappy" Cox, proposed the resolution of date supervision. The Student council will provide for each couple a faculty sponsor for the purpose of correcting wrong pronunciation in conversation, instruction in military tactics and excusing cuts from class. This is a continuation of the counseling program instituted at the first of the year. Jackie "Loud Mouth" Guynes commented on the passing of the bill by saying, "I can hardly wait till my next date, I'm going to take Mr. Roy B. "Water Wagon" Henderson with me."

Benches Installed

The council has even installed (Continued to page 4)

Jurple Jackets Break Date Rules

"Dating is against the established Jurple Jacket tradition," says Mary Edith "Freak" Breard, prexy. "It has been a constitutional offense since the beginning of the Jurple Jacket club," she adds. However, some unprincipled girls have wormed their way into the organization this year and are working like termites to undermine this bulwark of the J.J.'s. Not one or two, but three coeds dated cadets last weekend and the tradition went into its death throes.

"It's not fair," say the other members, particularly the old hags left over from last year. The Jurple Jackets then decided to organize a dating bureau, with the hopes of obtaining blind dates at least once a week for all members—at a premium, of course. All boys and men between the ages of 14 and 75 are eligible.

Johnson Teaches Embezzling Class

Seeing that his advanced accounting students don't seem to be getting the idea through subtle remarks, James "Quick Fingers" Johnson started an aggressive campaign last week to teach the fine arts of embezzling funds. All students are expected instinctively to be proficient in petty theft, but the problem is to cover it up, he explained. A few days ago "Quick Fingers" hurriedly ran over a few of his methods of balancing books, regardless of deficiencies running into thousands of dollars. Now all students are happy to realize at last the big attractions in the accounting field.

Lt. Col. F. L. "Girdle Girded" Pond, recently demoted to the rank of sub-private, goes into a rage and demands Cadet Lt. Col. Robert "Dictator" Guy to rouse the men from their laziness. It was on this "forced" march that 63 1-3 men were lost and "Girdle Girded's" reign of terror came to an end. Cadet Captains Prentiss "Scrappy" Cox and Pascal "Nip" Norris take a snooze under the shade furnished by Cadet 1st Sgt. Harry "Brew" Frazier who has passed out on a limb.

Walk on Grass

Distorted Campus Needed

Students and faculty will absolutely have to stop paying attention to the "keep off grass" signs placed at various inconspicuous spots on the campus and walk on the grass as much as possible. This will keep the grass from growing and having to be mowed, thereby giving "Basement Belle" Irby and his mob time to complete the digging of a tunnel from the Main building to the vault of the Ouachita National bank, three months ahead of schedule. It also will save eight gallons of "flivver fuel" used in the mowing machine. This surplus will be auctioned off each week by Dean C. C. "Cue Ball" Colvert from the balcony of his luxurious home, which the Come On Sucker Finance company will take over within a short time. So, let's all walk on the grass as much as possible.

Also, if you see any plants or shrubs which you would like to have for yourself, dig them up. It will save the expense of pruning and spraying them. As long as we are going to make our campus look hideous let's do it as efficiently as possible.

"Bug Batty" Reveals Revelation

Ninety-Third Element Concocted by Precocious Prof

Aaron "Bug Batty" Seamster, Northeast Junior college's own bungling professor of bugs, bacteria, and boogie woogie, has at last made known the results of his years of extensive study. To him goes the unique distinction of having discovered the ninety-third element. This amazing climax is destined to place his name in the hall of fame. For years scientists have searched in vain and performed millions of fruitless experiments, hoping for a ray of light on this rare creature. Now, our own bungling biologist blushing relates what he shyly calls the irony of fate.

- Name:
1. Woman—the weaker of the human family.

- Occurrence:
1. Can be found wherever man exists.
  2. Seldom occurs in the free or native state.
  3. Quality depends on the state in which it has been found.
  4. It is found in its most beautiful natural state in the South.
- Physical properties:
1. All colors and sizes.
  2. Always appears in disguised conditions.
  3. Surface of face seldom unprotected, usually covered with coating of paint or film of powder (composition immaterial).
  4. Boils at nothing, may freeze at any moment; however, it melts when properly treated.
  5. Very bitter if not used correctly.

- Chemical properties:
1. Extremely active.
  2. Possesses a great affinity for gold, silver, platinum, and precious stones of all kinds.
  3. Violent reactions when left alone by man.
  4. Ability to absorb all sorts of expensive goods at all times.
  5. Sometimes yields to pressure.
  6. Turns green when placed next to a better looking sample.
  7. Ages very rapidly.
  8. Fresh variety has great magnetic attractions.
- Notes:
1. Highly explosive and likely to be dangerous in inexperienced hands.
  2. Research work yields best results when done alone by man, in moonlight or in private parlor.

Neath the Campus Dirt

By I. M. Crawling

With a fiendish gleam in my eye at the prospect of catching up with some of the profs on the campus, I beat my way into the Big club on SiDiard street the other night. I went there on a tip from Clyde "Shipwreck" Benson, who overheard Dean "Cue Ball" Colvert ask May "I Run the Boss As Well As His Business" Read if she could slip away from W. L. "In By Ten" Perkins long enough to go on a private shindig with him. Well, was he fooled? By the time I got there "Shipwreck" had done such a good job of spreading the news half the student body and most all of the faculty were already there.

Of course the student body stays there half the time, but I received the surprise of my life when the first sight to greet my eyes was Olive "Tootsie Wootsie" Lusk and Fred "Responsibility" Thatcher doing a red hot jitterbug to the tune of "Sweet Adeline." Prentice "Little Brother" Boyles and Gail "Look, Men" McDonald kept running over everyone on the dance floor including Ada Bess "Now Girls" Hart and A. L. "Pussy Foot" Tatum, Frances "Home Is Nothing" Kelso and Dewey "Obstacle Course" Youngblood, Margaret "Hard Hearted" Payne and Otho "Dot Dash" Morgan, Lt. Col. F. L. "Girdle Girded" Pond and his secretary Dottie "Little Colonel" Young.

The editor of the Pow Wow received a letter the other day which is so good and so truly expresses the feeling of our readers,

I shall pass it on to you.

Dear Prentiss:

We think the Pow Wow is the best newspaper we've ever read, even better than the New York Times. The freshness of its news, the brilliance of its wording, the beautiful makeup, and the indication of journalistic superiority which its displays should make the editor go down in fame.

Particularly good is the column which you write and I have heard that in addition to all this you are also a good, sweet little boy.

Sincerely,

- Mrs. D. A. Cox.

- How To Blow Bigger and Better Soap Bubbles, by Emmet "Blow 'Em Up" Foster.
- Simplified Method of New International Shorthand, by Wilbur "In By Ten" Perkins. Teaches the proper method of perching on the boss's knee.
- How To Cuss Without a Lisp, by Dr. Mary "Queenie" Longe-rich.

Big Grid Schedule for '43 Season Arranged by Malone at Conference

Arrangements for a football schedule at N.J.C. were finally completed for the 1943 season when Coach James "Powder Puff" Malone attended the annual Southeastern conference meeting. N.J.C. has been accepted as a member of the conference and will play 10 foes this year.

The Indians will open their schedule September 18, at New Orleans, against Tulane but this fray is considered a breather. The three following Saturdays the Indians will entertain the Universities of Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia at the local gridiron.

Saturday, October 16, the Tribesmen return to the road and play their only cinch, when they meet the Notre Dame boys in South Bend, Indiana.

So far, the outlook is bright for the Indians from the material standpoint. Even though many of this year's squad will be lost to the Army, the Indians will receive at least 20 new players from prisons in North Louisiana.

Coach Malone said, "With all the new boys coming in and some infants left over, prospects look bright."

Women Taught Masculine Arts

With American womanhood more lowly developed, and with the shortage of manpower, N.J.C. girls are shown to be equal and often superior to the few stray goons left hanging around the campus.

This is demonstrated in Miss "Now Girls" Hart's physical destruction classes which this year, instead of the usual quiet girls' basketball, changed the rules entirely making the new game tougher than those tried by the fiercest of men's teams. The first sign of belligerence was when the girls began sticking out their tongues at each other. This led to face-scratching, hair-pulling and other violence.

The fighting spirit of the girls has been so improved that they will fill many places left by the boys. Coach "Powder Puff" Malone says, "I never thought much of these bits of fluff before, but now that they've been remodeled, I plan to use them on the football team next year. It should be the roughest year N.J.C. has ever seen!"

Indians Prepare For Big Game . . .

. . . with the Georgia Bulldogs next year. Prentice "Sweetie Face" Lenard and Ben "Tassel Tail" Tipton are diligently trying to decide which one will date the oldest girl on the campus. Abert "Cutie" Cloud surveys the size of the ball to determine whether Joe "Pig" Newcomer or Massey "Mugs" McConnell will have the greatest chance of shouldering its weight while the two kids fight it out for the honor. James "Muscles" Malone urges more cooperation with the promise of treating the boys to their favorite dish. All the while he prays that the new men being imported from a nearby prison will arrive.

Currie Slaughters Malone in Bout

Punching his larger opponent all over the ring and hitting him with everything except the referee, John Cecil "Slugger" Currie won his opening bout in the faculty intramural boxing tournament last night at the college gym.

Currie won over his much favored opponent, James "Powder Puff" Malone, in the main bout by a decision, although he had Malone hugging the ropes throughout the fray. Currie was out-weighted by his opponent 100 pounds, but his fighting heart told the story of his victory.

Not once was the outcome of the fight in doubt and from the opening bell "Slugger" began whittling "Powder Puff" down to his size until the loser was cut to ribbons. Blood completely covered the canvas by the middle of the bout, and several porters had to take the blood up in sponges.

Squaw Track Team Wins Meet; 'Speedy' Biddy Breaks Record

Flashy Martin Biddy, winner of several 100-yard dashes in major track meets, set a new national record in his special century run when he broke the tape in 9 seconds flat at the Sugar Bowl track in New Orleans, March 29.

Besides winning this special event, "Speedy" Biddy took the crowd's breath with his spectacular throws of the discus, shot-put, and javelin. As a team-man, Biddy teamed with such speed demons as Dalton Boyd, Virgil Vetsch and Clem Welsh to win the mile and the 880-yard relays.

Of the team's 30 points, Biddy piled up 24 of them and took high scoring honors of the meet. The one man terror, Biddy, was chosen to represent the United States track team in the grand meet in Berlin next March or maybe sooner.

Outside of being an excellent trackman, Biddy is also a student having compiled a semester average of 2.99 in his studies.

Guidance Results Shown by Tatum

A. L. Tatum, better known as "Pussy-foot" among his best friends, announced with enthusiasm this week some of the first results of his vocational guidance department. As chronic instructor in psychology and counseling director, A. L. has made remarkable progress during his first year at the Northeast Junior Concentration camp.

The job of a vocational director is to advise students in matters concerning the question, "What am I good for?" For most students of N.J.C. there is no answer, but A. L., since he is getting paid to advise them, goes merrily on his way plotting futures for hopeless students.

Glowing with pride, "Pussy-foot" shyly presented to the Pow Wow the first results of his guidance program. To date, this department can point with pride in having turned out many highly specialized gold-brickers, apple-polishers, stuffed-shirts, pick-pockets, clock-watchers, bird-dog specialists, dead-heads, jerks and many other popular professions open to modern youth.

Students who suspect that they have unusual ability in any of these highly important occupations should apply to A. L. for a special test that will prove their aptitudes for these vocations.

of "Gurgle-Goo's" confession that he warned "Sweater Girl" that dire results would ensue if she did not change her wearing apparel.

"Sweater Girl" was the Algebra instructor of this famous institution of learning. Her vivacious ways and intriguing personality captured the hearts of every member of her classes.

"Gurgle-Goo" is one of the most eligible bachelors on the N.J.C. campus. He speaks Spanish fluently; this, no doubt, contributes to his irresistible manner. When asked for a statement for the press, he replied, "Women haven't got a chance with me, I be a-thinking."

The action on the part of "Gurgle-Goo" came as a shock to friends of both parties because seemingly there existed an engendered endearment between the two. It was generally agreed that they had much in common, "Gurgle-Goo" was quite a "shark" in Algebra.

Among the people attending the trial was Roy B. "Water Waggon" Henderson, art instructor who was one of the deceased's closest friends. He commented on her untimely death, saying, "It's such a pity, she was such a-er-uh likeable person."

Lt. Col. "Girdle Girded" Pond was chairman of the gas swiping committee composed of Hazel "Giggle Wiggle" Mitchell and Carrie Mae "Sweater Girl" Stephenson, deceased.

Compulsory Dress

More strict measures will be needed to keep up the famous standard of discipline that was set by instructors at the beginning of the year. Besides compulsory assembly attendance, class attendance and regulation uniform for boys, we shall have compulsory dress attire for girls as well.

Gym Clothes

The following details were worked out by Virginia "Gus" Newman and Margie "Neck Nutty" Martin and Mary Edith "Panty Waist" Breard: white gym shorts and red sweat shirts. "Of course this might necessitate replacing a few of the teachers but it is generally agreed that this will be a great morale booster," said Annette "Oh, Johnny" Masling.

Urging all students to attend, Bill "Profanity Pete" Bernhardt announced Baptist Student union plans to sponsor their annual jitterbug jive to-night. The soiree is to be given in L. L. "Farmer" Price's Nite Spot with the music of Ben "Meat Hasher" Burton's band. Prexy "Profanity Pete," realizing that the B. S. U. jive is in competition with the R.O.T.C. Cadet ball, says, "Students are sure to get hep at Price's. We expect a capacity crowd."

Sign up for Spanish

Cokes and movies are the order of the day in the third year Spanish class taught by Hazel "Giggle Wiggle" Mitchell. Students are flocking to join this gay meeting. Movies, too, are provided by the flapper instructor. With flashing eyes and vivid movements, Senorita "Giggle Wiggle" says, "I intend to teach so I can have some fun, too!" Promising to give lessons in the little known Brazilian samba to Spanish digs, "Giggle Wiggle" will be seen rehearsing all over the campus, we hope!

How To Get Dates

Wanted by Betro "Two Timer" McRaney: One less date for the Cadet ball. "Two Timer," on his recent Shreveport bender, acquired a date though he already had one. (She's pretty, too.) Apply to "Two Timer" if you don't have a date, boys. Persuade him to share the wealth.

A new love affair has blossomed in the library, or should we pass it off as another case of heroine worship? Fred "Kamera Kutie" McDuff has taken to whistling at Miss Mary "Sugar Face" Clay.

"Baby Face" Feud Flares

Out of the way! If you see Robert "Dictator" Guy vivaciously searching for Albert "Infant" Cloud, scam! Lay that feud between "Dictator" and "Infant" to that fascinating baby talk of Gail "Baby Face" McDonald that has charmed them both. Just pray that there is no homicide!

Bernard "Dance Daffie" Zucaro jitterbugs with Margie "Neck ' Nutty" Martin, while Prentiss "Scrappy" Cox glares.

Regrets to the family of "Bug Batty" Seamster, who has been missing for the past week. It is suspected that "Bug Batty" got lost in one of his own conch shells while he chased a rare animal known as Homo sapiens.
