Assembly Meeting Called Today For Voting and Talks

A special assembly meeting featuring elections, discussion about "Redskins on Parade", the Dixie Ball, the Beauty Pageant and important announcements has been set for second period today (Friday), in Brown Auditorium. Bobby Oden, student body president announced.

Election of class officers and Student Council representatives will be held, and information about the election of beauties and favorites for the Chacahoula, Northeast yearbook, and cheerleaders will be given.

An announcement about "Who's Who" also is scheduled.

A two-thirds majority of the classes must be present before the elections can be held, Oden said.

NOTICE

All women students who reside on campus and attend the Military Ball must be in by 2 a. m. to-night, Dean Christine P'Simer has announced.

Many Varied Acts To be Feature of "Redskins" Show

Final plans are underway for the 1957 "Redskins on Parade" to be presented March 1, in Brown Hall Auditorium.

The production is sponsored annually by the Northeast State Student Council with the cooperation of the various departments.

According to the directors, Skippy Portinan and Chug Stout, a large and varied number of acts consisting of vocal solos, quartets, dramatic skits and comedy routines has been scheduled.

Notice

Class pictures for the Chacahoula, Northeast yearbook, will be made today from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m., and Saturday from 9 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.

Persons who have not had pictures made, or have had originals sent back, are asked by the Chacahoula staff to have them made at this time.

Men are requested to wear dark coats and ties. Women are asked to wear dark clothes also. Sorority and fraternity pictures also will be made.

Registration Off Slightly—Hanna

Registration for the Spring semester dropped slightly below Fall semester enrollment but "will approach" the 1805 total that attended Northeast during the first part of the school year, according to Dr. Clint Hanna, director of admissions.

Enrollment generally drops at the beginning of the Spring semester.

Dr. Hanna said he did not think that there would be a drop of as many as 50 students. It would be hard to predict the final total until figures are more complete, he added.

Included in last semester's enrollment were 1,099 men and 706 women.

Ouachita led parish student registration with 919, followed by Morehouse with 153 and Richland with 114 students. Other parishes with at least 10 students enrolled included: Franklin, 99; West Carroll, 90; Union, 59; Caldwell, 50; East Carroll, 42; Madison, 33; Catahoula, 27; LaSalle, 26; Jackson, 20; Tensas, 17; and Winn, 10.

Others included Caddo and Concordia, 9 each; Grant and Rapides, 6 each; Bienville, Claiborne and Orleans, 5 each; East Baton Rouge, Lincoln, Sabine and Vermillion, 4 each; Avoyelles, Lafayette, and Webster, 3 each; Arcadia, Ascension, Bossier, Iberia, and St. Landry, 2 each, and Beauregard, DeSoto, Jefferson, Davis, Lafourche, Natchitoches, St. Bernard and Tangipahoa, 1 each.

Military Ball Scheduled Tonight at West Monroe

The seventh annual Military Ball will be held tonight at the West Monroe Fair Ground Exhibit Building. Durwood Cline, a well known recording star, will provide the music.

Composers Set Recital Feb. 25

The Eta Iota Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national music fraternity, will sponsor a recital of works of fourteen student composers of Northeast State. The Department of Music of Northeast Louisiana State College will present this program, which is scheduled for Feb. 25 at 8:15 p. m. in Brown Auditorium.

The student composers who will be represented in this program are Howard Jackson, Carolyn Pratt, De Juana McCormick, Joe Naff, Stanley Burkett, Donald McGough, Bonita Tucker, Beverly Durden, Jack Kimball, Betty Spurlock, Jacqueline Jones, Fern Fogleman, Janet Cash and Marion Crain.

The program will consist of choral numbers, figured bass realizations, woodwind trios, wind ensemble compositions, vocal solos and duets, and instrumental solo compositions.

The dance is slated to begin at 8:45 with a receiving line to welcome the cadets.

The main feature of the occasion will be the crowning of Carolyn George, queen of the Ball, by Cadet Lt. Col. Sylvan Hoyem.

The queen will be accompanied by Joan Harris, sponsor of "A" Company; Carol Ann Goodrum, sponsor of "B" Company; Tommie Sue Proctor, sponsor of "C" Company; Annette Hartley, sponsor of "D" Company; Darven Barksdale, Johnette Bradley. They will be escorted by Sammy McGough, "A" Company Commander; Bobby Adcock, "B" Company Commander; Jimmy Smith, "C" Company (Continued on Page 4)

McDaniel Elected Profile Editor

Imogene McDaniel, a senior English major from Kelly, was elected editor of the Profile, a Northeast publication. Mrs. Dorothy Barringer was elected business manager.

The aim of the publication is to encourage and promote writing of a literary nature by students in all classes at Northeast. Selections for the Profile are made by the (Continued on page 4)

Quiet Please!

A library is "a place set apart containing books for reading, study, or reference." Does ours at Northeast measure up to this definition?

What, with hearty, detailed discussions of a hectic weekend among five or six students after a too cordial greeting, it takes time and self-discipline to get back one's train of thought and keep it centered against this din of disturbance—time and energy which might have been applied to the original purpose that led us here.

The homespun philosophy of dishing out what you would like to receive might raise the standard of our "sanctuary of learning". Perhaps we might need the usual reminder in such places—"quiet please."

Much Salk Vaccine Unused

Polio—the killer and paralyzer is down—but not out. The American people have only their apathy or fear to blame. Surprisingly, fewer than half of the 108,000,000 people in the age group from infancy to 39 have the protection of the Salk serum. Because of the slackened demand for the serum, two leading firms have cut back production.

These facts were released by the American Medical Association in a nationwide effort to encourage the taking of the vaccine before the 1957 season begins. Also backing the efforts are the state medical societies, local physicians, and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The medical association aims at two goals: To complete the three shots for all persons up to the age of 20, and to vaccinate all adults up to 40. This group would include most all college students.

According to the American Medical Association, some people still fear peculiar reactions to the vaccine, but safety has been assured beyond the shadow of a doubt. Some persons doubt the effectiveness of the serum, but only two deaths have been reported in the millions of children who have received all three of the Salk shots.

The polio virus is still with us. And so are unused millions of doses of the Salk vaccine.

Cigarette Tossers Damage Building

Northeast has come a long way since the summer of 1950 when the state legislature placed the college on a four-year status, and this rapid expansion has greatly increased our school pride. The recently completed administration building, costing you and me—as Louisiana taxpayers—$700,000, is probably the most outstanding part of the school's program.

The interior of this fine structure is reflecting evidence of carelessness—principally that of tossing cigarettes on the floors. A check of the situation revealed an adequate supply of receptacles for the convenient disposal of cigarette stubs and waste. The second floor of the north wing is the worst problem area, followed closely by the first floor of the same wing. Since there is more activity in this portion of the building we can expect more depreciation—but this does not excuse carelessness.

The first floor ash stands evidently present near impossible targets for "cigarette tossers". The second floor has fewer receptacles and increase difficulty in marksmanship. This conduct is rapidly defacing the corridor floors and adding considerably to maintenance expenses.

Localizing and stabilizing most convenient positions of the stands plus posters requesting their usage would be conducive to the harmless disposal of cigarettes. Of course, effort by people who frequent these premises would eliminate the problem entirely.

Trip, Sale, Contest By Commerce Club

The Commerce Club met Friday and discussed details of their trip to Houston.

Club members, with advice from the sponsors, decided to go on the tour April 15th, 16th and 17th and may extend the trip through the 18th. These days preceded the Easter holidays.

A rummage sale was planned for February 23rd at Five Points in downtown Monroe. All commerce students are urged to bring any garments they have discarded or any clothes that do not fit, to the commerce instructors or leave them in room 307, Brown Hall.

This year the Commerce Club is planning to sponsor two entrants in the Miss Northeast contest. Dale Meachum, an accounting major was elected to choose nominees on the basis of poise, talent, and beauty. Two of these nominees will be picked by the Commerce Club to represent the organization.

Circle-K Holds Banquet Monday; Officers Listed

An installation banquet for the Northeast Louisiana Circle-K Club was held at the Virginia Hotel, Monday.

The principal speaker for the occasion was Oliver Hornsby, past-governor of District 6 of the Kiwanis International. Officers installed were: President, Billy Crosswell; Vice-president, Robert Carter; Secretary, Ronald Crews; Treasurer, Charles Bearden. The Board of Directors are: Ronald Anglin, Jimmy Dimos, Eugene Gilley and Jack Patrick.

Dave Agnew, lieutenant governor of District 6 conducted the installation of the officers.

Other members who were installed are: William Brodie, Samuel LaSuzzo III, Theo Miles, Fred Parker, Herschel Roan, Billy J. Taylor, Jerry Womack, Jack Patrick, and Alvin Lipson.

Music for the program was furnished by the Northeast Louisiana State College quartet composed of Sonny Fisher, Billy Crain, Charles Pollard and Volmer Dean Boyd.

Miss Tommy Sue Proctor was the featured soloist accompanied at the piano by Miss Gertrude Sandrock, assistant professor of Music at the college.

Color Slides Shown At Meeting of MWC

A talk illustrated with color slides of scenic places visited during the past three years was given by Marcus Mapp, assistant professor of Geology at a Mature Women's Club meeting recently.

Mrs. Spangler, club president, presided.

Next meeting of the club is scheduled for March 6.

Letters to Editor

Editor, Pow Wow:

I'm sure you agree with the often repeated phrase "My how Northeast is growing!" And that is the origin of a common complaint on our campus—the growth is fine, but campus procedure seems to be lagging behind in some respects.

Specifically, between class time, which is only five minutes. There are many of us who are unfortunate in having consecutive classes at opposite ends of the campus. Five minutes run pretty short when you have to get from one end of the Administration Building to the third floor of Brown Hall or to the Fine Arts and Science Building.

And what is it going to be like when one has to hike down to the soon-to-be opened Agriculture and Home Economics Building—a track meet?

It seems to me that an allowance of ten minutes between classes would remedy students being breathless or late for classes, and I'm sure the faculty would appreciate less tardiness and interruptions in their classes.

Why can't we come up to the standards of a larger campus and have more time between classes?

—Ginger Henry

In the hectic rush to take care of more important details in a rapidly expanding institution, this problem may have been overlooked. We feel certain the administration will soon work out a plan to take care of the situation.—Ed.

Tribe Drops Close Ones To S'Eastern and Delta State

Northeast's Indians dropped two basketball games by slim margins Friday and Monday. Both games were played away from home—the first against Southeastern and the next with Delta State.

Delta State overcame a three point halftime lead and went on to defeat Northeast State 95-87 at Cleveland, Mississippi Monday night.

The Statesmen held the Indians scoreless for several minutes of the second half and Northeast was never able to catch up. Individual scoring leaders were Ronnie Junker for Delta with 30 points followed closely by teammate Smith with 20 points. Again leading Northeast was Lloyd Crocker who hooped 25 points for the Indians.

Northeast's record for the year now stands at 10 wins and 8 losses with the next game scheduled for Friday night against Louisiana College here in Monroe.

Southeastern Louisiana edged out Northeast State 77-74 at Hammond last Friday night despite a blistering rally by the Indians that almost provided enough points for victory.

Going into the final six minutes Southeastern led 73-51, but the Indians hit for 20 points while holding Southeastern scoreless and with only one minute left had cut the margin to two points. Clutch shooting by the Lion's Jimmy Casabat in the fading moments of the game gave the Lionmen the decision.

Individual scoring leaders were Faceane with 22 for the Lions and Crocker and Patterson tied with 16 each for the Indians.

Club to Entertain

The Speech Club will entertain its members and sponsors with a shrimp supper at 5 p. m., Saturday at a private camp on the Arkansas Road in West Monroe. Prospective members may contact Sarah Batton, club president, for more information.

Baseball Batterymen Open Drills Monday

All men intending to go out for the position of either pitcher or catcher on the Indian baseball team are urged to report to the stadium third period Monday.

Baseball coach George Luffey said that freshman players are invited along with lettermen.

Only those trying for the position of pitcher or catcher should report. A later meeting date for other players will be set and reported in the Pow Wow.

ENJOYING THE SUNSHINE— Joyce Currie takes advantage of the Springlike weather which has descended on the Northeast campus while batting a tennis ball around. Joyce likes sunshine, tennis—and boys—not necessarily in that order.

Week's Training Shows Grid Pep

High spirited training sessions and good morale seem to be two of the trademarks of the 1957 edition of the Northeast Indians. Now in spring training, the pigskin pushers are accomplishing a great deal, according to coach Devonne Payne.

Light, mild, changeable weather has permitted a full quota of practice sessions, all of them devoted to football fundamentals.

Only sad note to the otherwise harmonious sessions has been the injury of Roy Cagle, transfer tackle. Cagle broke two bones in his left hand. This injury is not expected to keep him from playing in the upcoming season.

Men's Intramurals Draw Four Cage Teams; Entries Asked

Dr. Carl Meeks, director of intramural athletics stated that the entry lists, for basketball teams, single men with no team affiliations, and ping pong tournaments were rapidly filling up. There is room for more contestants, however, and speed is requested of those who intend to enroll.

Entry lists are posted on the gym bulletin board. Competition in basketball is scheduled to begin on or about February 18.

Teams already enrolled are TEKES managed by Lew Koch, Gemstones managed by Billy Graft, Gophers managed by Glen Williams, and Aces II managed by J. W. Tannehill.

Single men enrolled are J. W. Tannehill, Bill Morris, Sam Jungino, Louis Guirlando, Charles Vining, Luther Burney, Green, and Julius Wagner.

Entered in the Ping Pong tournament are Billy Graft, Charles Vining, and Randall Vining.

N'East Students To Be In Monroe Film

A group of twenty-five Northeast students and townspeople, under the direction of George Brian, assistant professor of speech, will go on location at Natchez, Mississippi, Saturday, March 23. The purpose of the trip is to film a small portion of a movie of the history of Monroe and surrounding area.

The replica of Fort Rosalie at Natchez is being used to defray the expense of building a set, since it looks much like Fort Miro, the former trading post at Monroe, might have looked. Costumes and make-up for the movie will be furnished by the Speech Department.

Historical Personages

Students and townspeople who will enact the parts of historical personages who figured in the establishing of Monroe are: Rita Snider, Sue Turner, Linda Garrett, Joann Gaster, Peggy Rawls, Lloyd Crossley, Douglas Comeaux Allan Scott, Homer Rouse, Marvin Eppinette.

C. B. Roberts, Hershel Roan, Roger Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Parkerson, Mr. A. L. Causey, Jo Brian, Carol Lynn Brian, Mike Parkerson, Beckey Parkerson, Barbara Rouse, Charles Brulte, Sonny Fisher, Marlon Howard, Wayne Elliott, and Skippy Portman.

Descendant

One of the students, Marvin Eppinette, who will make the trip, is an actual descendant of Louis Eppinette, French trader at Fort Miro about 200 years ago.

The movie is being filmed with 16 mm in ansrocrome. After the premiere, which has not been set, the film will be placed in the film library at Northeast, and may be checked out by other schools in the state.

Pledge Ceremony Planned by Clubs

A joint meeting of Sigma Tau Delta, professional English fraternity, and the Writer's Club was held Monday. Florice Bingham, president of Sigma Tau Delta, presided over the meeting.

Plans were made for the Sigma Tau Delta pledge ceremony. The annual event will be February 20 at 7:00 p. m. in the faculty lounge. Following the pledge ceremony, members of the Writer's Club will join the group for a social.

Phi Mu Chooses McKay as Prexy

The Eta Iota chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity held its annual election of officers February 4.

Those elected to office are as follows: Sidney McKay, president; Charles Clark, secretary; James Hallberg, treasurer; Charles Hytken, executive alumni officer; Holcombe Pryor, historian-reporter; and Volmer Dean Boyd, pledge master. The new officers will be formally installed at a meeting next month.

Howard Jackson and Billy Crain were chosen by the Northeast State chapter to be the official representatives of the chapter at the province convention, which is to be held on February 22-23 at Baton Rouge.

MANY VARIED ACTS—

Actual rehearsals and staging began this week but auditions are still open. They will be held each afternoon from 3:30 until 5:00 in Brown Hall Auditorium through Tuesday, February 19.

Students are also needed to act as stage hands in assisting with scenery, lighting and the handling of props. Anyone interested in backstage work may apply by contacting either of the directors or any member of the Student Council.

Northeast Hosting Dance Symposium

Northeast Louisiana State College will host the Annual State Dance Symposium today and Saturday, Miss Gertrude Myers, state dance chairman, has announced.

The symposium, which is a part of the Southern Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, will feature three outstanding conductors and consultants—Miss Carolyn Colvin of Louisiana State University, Dr. Colleen Bennett of Northwestern State College, and Miss Mary Ella Montague of Sam Houston State College, Huntsville, Texas.

Today's session will include a modern dance work-shop designed to stimulate interest in modern dancing in Louisiana and to foster new ideas and techniques to persons already acquainted and interested in modern dance, Miss Myers said.

The program Saturday will be centered around the elementary teaching of dance rhythms to children.

Dr. Bennett, assistant professor of physical education at Northwestern, has taught rhythmic activities, folk, square, tap, ballroom and modern dance.

Miss Colvin, who is dance director at LSU, will teach modern dance on Friday with Dr. Bennett. Miss Montague will instruct in elementary rhythms, Saturday.

Dr. Bennett has taught dance at Memphis State College; Indiana University; YWCA at Evansville, Ind.; Albion College, Mich., before joining Northwestern as dance instructor.

Miss Colvin performed and toured as a member of the T. S. C. W. modern dance group for three years. Miss Montague has been an associate professor in health, physical education and recreation for women since 1945.

Experimnetal TV Show to Involve N'East Students

Northeast State tackles a complicated but fascinating subject in its next television production Saturday afternoon at 4:00 over KNOE-TV. The show is entitled "Stand-By" and will attempt to show the viewer "just what makes up" a television program.

A large number of Northeast students will participate. Acting as floor manager, James W. Parkerson, assistant professor of speech and the show's producer, will explain various production methods to members of speech classes 130 and 104, while on camera.

Students involved in the experimental telecast are: Pat Young, Charlie Warren, Chug Stout, Doug Comeaux, Kathy Fleischmann, Linda Garrett, Jerry Lee, Rita Snider, Sue Turner, Ray Vineyard and Sarah Batton.

Because of its technical nature the script is broken into segments emphasizing various components of a TV program. For instance, parts of the show will encompass lighting, the camera and lens, sets, special effects, audio, and perhaps directing and film.

There are several ways of using the camera in television. One method is called objective camera, the technique used in drama, where rough camera work would destroy the illusion created by the story.

Just the opposite of this technique is an ultra-informal method where no illusion is attempted and the viewers may at times see the boom men and cameras without destruction of the program's purpose. "I've Got A Secret" sometimes uses this method of camera handling.
