Redskins Opens Here Next Thursday

NLSC Fusileers Are Activated

The annual Military Awards Day ceremony was highlighted last Thursday by the activation of the Northeast Louisiana State College "Fusileers," a precision drill team composed of members of the ROTC Cadet Brigade.

Dr. George T. Walker formally activated the unit by presenting a charter to their commander, cadet Robert I. Ballard of West Monroe. Spectators at the ceremony were then treated to a sample exhibition of the "Fusileers'" precision drill routines, which included such movements as the "Marching Manual of Arms" and the "Rifle Toss." These and other precision movements will be featured this Fall during the half-time ceremonies at Northeast's home football games; and in other local parades and ceremonies in which the "Fusileers" will participate.

The sixteen active members of the drill team include cadet Ballard, their

CACTUS JACK—Northeast's own "Cactus Jack", namely Jack Collins of the Northeast staff, holds three of those "notorious criminals" in the campus jail, during the Go West day held on the NLSC campus last Friday. Deputy Gene Hufty holds on to the unbreakable lock that contained all those non-conformists during the day.

ROTC Cadets Are Honored At Awards Day Ceremony

Northeast State paid tribute Thursday to the cadets of the Reserve Officers Training Corps who have distinguished themselves by their achievements during the current school year.

The event was the annual Military Awards Day.

Among the many awards presented was the Superior Cadet Ribbon, which is presented annually to the outstanding cadet in each class. The award was presented by Dr. William R. Hammond to cadets col. Elbert W. Dyer, Monroe; lt. Arville W. Steed, Shreveport; M/sgt. Robert M. Kemp, West Monroe; and, sgt. Robert J. Pfrimmer, Monroe.

The President's Medal was presented by Dr. George T. Walker to the cadet in each class who had attained the highest academic average in his class and an average of "B" or better in his military science course during the past year. Honors went to cadets capt. Jimmy T. Arnold, Crowville; lt. Cecil E. Nelson, Hallock, Minnesota; S/sgt. Jerald V. Owens, Haile; and cpl. David W. Smith, Monroe.

The Professor of Military Science Medal for outstanding leadership in ROTC activities was presented by Lt. Col. Meredith L. Shumaker to cadets lt. col. Jerry L. Miller, Marion; lt. James I. McGough, Monroe; SFC Murray L. Rabalais, Armandville; and sgt. Robert J. Pfrimmer, Monroe.

Cadet capt. Van R. (Ross) Nolan, Monroe, was presented the Central Savings Bank and Trust Company award by Colton Yeager. The award is presented annually to the MS IV cadet who demonstrates the greatest improvement in all phases on military science classes, academic courses, and leadership during the present school year.

Cadet lt. Harold J. Mason, El Dorado, Ark., won the Sam Orchard award, which is presented annually to the MS III cadet who has shown the greatest improvement in all phases of military science classes, academic courses, and leadership during the present school year. The award was presented by Mr. Sam Orchard.

The Reserve Officer's Association Medal for three years of outstanding scholarship in military science courses was presented by Robert Kennedy to cadet lt. Charles E. Evans, Mer Rouge, La.

The Rodney J. Hobbs Post, VFW, presented a medal to cadet cpl. Roger D. Bright, Minden, on the basis of his high average in military science classes and other academic courses, his active interest in ROTC affairs, and his leadership qualities. M/Sgt. Herbert L. Clark made the presentation.

Cadet M/sgt. Robert M. Kemp, West Monroe, received the award from the Barkdull Faulk Post, American Legion, for distinction in having earned the highest two year average in basic military science, and for leadership demonstrated in the classroom and on the drill field. The award was presented by Charles J. Cascio.

The National Society of the Sons of American Revolution awarded a medal to cadet cpl. Charles M. Martin, West Monroe, for outstanding military and academic grades, and for having displayed patriotism and awareness of civic responsibilities. W. E. Leigh made the presentation.

Cadet lt. James R. Armond, Crowville, received the Association of the United States Army Medal for out-

Former Graduates Meet On NLSC Campus Also

The annual Northeast State College production of "Redskins On Parade" will be held next Thursday and Friday in Brown auditorium with the show under the direction of Bill Wells and featuring the top talent of the Northeast student body.

Also, on the 17th, all former students of Northeast will be invited to attend the Spring Alumni Day, the first event of its kind ever scheduled for NLSC. Association President James W. Beaver said there will be several tours between 5 and 6:30 p.m. with the former grads having an opportunity to see the Redskins production that night.

Among the numbers to be included in the 2-hour production are "Apache," "Alley Cat," "Tom Doolie," "Five Hundred Miles" and "Water-boy."

A chorus line will perform and there will be skits and comedy numbers. The Jazz Ensemble will be on hand for some numbers, as will Miss Cherie Martin.

Beaver stressed that the Alumni Day will be a social event without business meetings. "We urge all former students, regardless of when they attended the College, to come out and view the progress being made on campus," he said.

At 6:30 a picnic supper will be served free to the alumni and their families on the patio of the College Union Building. At that time, Beaver will introduce several campus personalities.

Included will be Miss Cherie Martin, Miss Majorette of America and first runner-up in the recent Miss Northeast contest; Miss Diana Jane Smith, Miss Louisiana; Don Styron, world-record-holder in track; Miss Julia Wilhite, Miss Northeast; Lanny Johnson, All-American basketball star, and Bill Bobo, president of the student body. Bobo will have several members of his group on hand along with some of the officers for next year.

The picnic will be over in time for those who are interested to attend "Redskins," annual campus production. Admission to the show, which will begin at 8 p.m. in Brown Hall Auditorium, is $1 for adults and 50c for students.

Notice

All campus organizations are required to turn in a financial statement for that organization. These reports will be due in the office of the Dean of Students by Wednesday, May 15.

Gordon Will Speak At NLSC May 6 To Beta Sigma Group

Dr. Robert E. Gordon, editor of the American Midland Naturalist and assistant professor of biology at the University of Notre Dame, will speak at the May 16 meeting of Beta Sigma at Northeast Louisiana State College.

Dr. Gordon, a former Northeast faculty member will speak on "Some Problems of Communication in Science" at the 5:15 meeting of Beta Sigma, the Northeast biology club, in the College Union auditorium, according to Edward Whately, associate professor of biology.

The biologist will also lecture to several zoology 2 classes Friday and Saturday, May 17-18, and will be available to talk to students concerning career opportunities in biology.

Gordon was assistant professor of biology at Northeast from September, 1954, until August, 1958, when he went to Notre Dame. He holds a bachelor's degree from Emory University, a master's from the University of Georgia and a Ph.D from Tulane.

He has had articles published in the Texas Journal of Science and Copeia, in addition to the American Midland Naturalist.

LUGGIN' 'EM OUT—Northeast State College students, and faculty, joined in an all-out effort last Friday and Saturday to move the books from the old library to the new $800,000 Sandel Library on Hippolite Street. Here three students are shown as they carry out armloads of books. Sgt. William Blythe of the military department sits ready to pass out merits to the ROTC cadets who aided in the effort. Mrs. Zanona Flinn of the reader services department of the library looks on.

B.S.U.

The Northeast State Baptist Student Union has scheduled its annual spring picnic for May 18, and all students are invited to attend free of charge.

The picnic will be held at the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home park, located on the north side of DeSiard Street near the home. The affair will begin at 3 p.m. and will run through 8 p.m. Students may go directly to the park, or those without transportation should meet at the Baptist Student Center on College Avenue at 2:45.

The picnic will have a number of highlights, including several outdoor games such as softball, badminton and others; a campfire service to be conducted by George Haile, Louisiana Tech B.S.U. director; and the installation of new officers by Miss Beth Hayworth, associate state B.S.U. director.

American Pharmaceutical Association

The Student Chapter of The A. Ph. A. recently held its election of officers for the 1963-64 school year. The new officers will be as follows: President: Leo Schillaci, vice president: Gilday Toural Jr., recording secretary: Edward Vocke, corresponding secretary: Karen Schell, treasurer: Charles Eberhart, historian: Frank Herbert.

The newly elected officers will be installed at the sixth annual banquet to be held May 25, at the Frances Hotel.

Kappa Alpha Order

The annual Old South Ball of Gamma Nu chapter was highlighted by the announcement of several special awards. Presented as Kappa Alpha Rose for 1963-64 was Miss Laney Ware of Bastrop. She succeeded Mrs. William King, the former Miss Sharon Ary.

The award for the best beard went to Steve Parker of Monroe, while Buddy Harrison, also of Monroe, received the award for the neatest beard. Mike McCready received the award for the best beard grown during a limited time because of his assistance in installing a KA chapter at Northwestern State College. Dr. Marvin McNeely presented the award for the most outstanding Active Member to Joe Thompson. Dr. James Modisette, faculty advisor for the fraternity, presented a trophy to Malcolm Decelle as the most outstanding pledge for the Fall Semester.

Our thanks go to the many faculty members and the administrators for their help in making Old South a success.

The Pledge-Active softball game has been scheduled for Saturday, May 18.

Phi Mu

Phi Mu held its annual Pink Carnation Ball Saturday night, May 4, at the Paragon Club. The ballroom was gaily decorated in pink and white, and illustrated the May Pole theme. President Camilla Harmon presented favors and introduced the chaperones and special guests.

Music was provided by "The Playboys" from L. S. U.

Special thanks go to all those who assisted in preparing for the dance and especially to social chairman, Pam Rudisill for her outstanding preparations in making the dance a success.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Members of Lambda Tau chapter were honored Monday night with a visit from District Advisor Mrs. Robert McCurdy from Shreveport. Mrs. McCurdy spoke to the group about her recent trip to New Orleans and her visit to one of the oldest A O Pi's living.

Members are looking forward to the Rose Formal, which will be held Saturday night on the Virginia roof. Music will be provided by the Pastels from New Orleans.

Plans are being made for the annual senior party, which will be held May 25. Members are also busy with plans for the A O Pi convention which will be held in Biloxi, Miss., this summer. Lambda Tau will be one of the host chapters.

Geographic Society

Northeast State's Geographic Society climaxed the year's activities with a barbecue at Bancroft's Camp last Saturday night.

Venison and all the trimmings were served.

Society members enjoyed several other activities this year, including a tour of the Waterways Experiment Station in Vicksburg, Miss., two weeks ago, and plans are being made for increased activity next year.

Sponsor W. C. Buchanan, associate professor of geography, urges that all members of the Society pay their dues promptly.

Jesters Club

The Jesters Club, dedicated to all branches of speech, held its first annual banquet last Thursday night at the Rendezvous.

Special entertainment was provided by Larry Wilson, Sonny McClung, Miss Gertrude Sandrock, special guest, Mrs. Emma Alexander.

Presentations for outstanding service to the speech department were made. Those receiving awards were Betsy McBride, Jerilyn Gilstrap, Murray Burford, and Mike Parkerson.

In the weekly meeting, Friday, plans for other coming activities were made. The Jesters will meet again next Friday, in room 205 of the CUB. All interested persons are invited.

Delta Omicron

Monday night, May 6, Leroy Ansbach, renowned concert pianist, was presented in recital by Omicron Epsilon chapter of Delta Omicron. At the reception following the recital Mr. Ansbach was initiated as a patron of the chapter as a token of the appreciation and respect of the members of the chapter.

Presiding over the initiation was Frederica Primm, president of Delta Omicron on the Northeast campus.

During the course of the recital Mr. Ansbach presented works by Mendelssohn, Schumann, Beethoven, Liszt, Debussy, and Persichetto. In the absence of program notes, he explained several of the pieces by telling something about the composer and by pointing out the principal themes used in each.

Fusileers

The Northeast Louisiana State College "Fusileers" will hold their first annual banquet in the Persian Room at the Embers tonight at 7:00 p.m. Special guests invited for the occasion include President George T.

HOW TO SEE EUROPE FOR ONLY $300 A DAY: NO. 1

Summer vacation is just around the corner, and naturally all of you are going to Europe. Perhaps I can offer a handy tip or two. (I must confess that I myself have never been to Europe, but I do have a French poodle and a German shepherd, so I am not entirely unqualified.)

First let me say that no trip to Europe is complete without a visit to England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Italy, Lichtenstein, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Russia, Greece, Yugoslavia, Albania, Crete, Sardinia, Sicily, Hungary, Rumania, Bulgaria, Lapland, and Andorra.

Let us take up these countries in order. First, England.

The old ones are thrown away

The capital of England is London—or Liverpool, as it is sometimes called. There are many interesting things to see in London—chiefly the changing of the guards. The guards are changed daily. The old ones are thrown away.

Another "must" while in London is a visit to the palace of the Duke of Marlborough. Marlborough is spelled Marlborough, but pronounced Marlboro. English spelling is very quaint, but terribly disorganized. The late George Bernard Shaw, author of Little Women, fought all his life to simplify English spelling. They tell a story about Shaw once asking a friend, "What does g-h-o-t-i spell?"

The friend pondered a bit and replied, "Goatee."

Shaw sniggered, "Pshaw," said Shaw. "G-h-o-t-i does not spell goatee. It spells fish."

"How is that?" said the friend.

Shaw answered, "Gh as in enough, o as in women, ti as in motion. Put them all together, you get fish."

This was very clever of Shaw when you consider that he was a vegetarian. And a good thing he was. As Disraeli once remarked to Guy Fawkes, "If Shaw were not a vegetarian, no lamb chop in London would be safe."

But I digress. We were speaking of the palace of the Duke of Marlborough—or Marlboro, as it is called in the United States. It is called Marlboro by every smoker who enjoys a fine, rich breed of tobacco, who appreciates a pure white filter, who likes a soft pack that is really soft, a Flip-Top box that really flips. Be sure you are well supplied with Marlboros when you make your trip abroad. After a long, tiring day of sightseeing there is nothing so welcome as a good flavorful Marlboro and a foot-bath with hot Epsom salts.

Epsom salts can be obtained in England at Epsom Downs. Kensington salts can be obtained at Kensington Gardens, Albert salts can be obtained at Albert Hall, Hyde salts can be obtained at Hyde Park, and the crown jewels can be obtained at the Tower of London.

The guards at the Tower of London are called Beefeaters because they are always beefing about what they get to eat. This is also known as "cricket" or "petrol."

Well, I guess that about covers England. In next week's column we will visit the Land of the Midnight Sun—France.

©1963 Max Shulman

Wherever you may roam in Europe and in all fifty states of the Union, you'll find Marlboro ever-present and ever-pleasant—filter, flavor, pack or box.

Pennel Tries For New Record; Tribe After Fourth GSC Crown

LISBON HIGH ACE—Glynn Saulters (center), all-stater in both baseball and basketball, is being shown by Northeast Coach Lenny Fant where to sign his grant-in-aid. Looking on are Glynn's parents, Coach and Mrs. Grady Saulters, and his brother Larry (right).

NLSC Signs Lisbon High Star-Saulters

Northeast Louisiana State Saturday landed one of the South's top recruiting prizes — Lisbon all-state basketball and baseball star Glynn Saulters. Sought by 17 colleges and universities and several major league baseball teams, Saulters signed a grant-in-aid agreement with Northeast in Monroe Saturday afternoon. The 6-2, 165-pound athlete was named to the all-state basketball team selected by Louisiana coaches in 1962 and was chosen on the class C all-state club by both coaches and sports writers this year. He has been a member of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association all-state baseball team for the past two seasons and is a heavy favorite to make the 1963 team. Son of Lisbon coach Grady Saulters, Glynn paced his basketball team to the state semi-finals this year, where Lisbon lost a 62-60 thriller to Holden, the eventual champion. Saulters scored 32 points in that semifinal game. For the full season, Saulters averaged 21.4 points and was also a crack rebounder. His scoring average was the third highest among class C players in the state. In his junior season, he averaged 17.7 points a game. In addition to his all-state laurels, the Lisbon star has been named to the all-district 5-C team three times and the all-regional team twice. During the past two years, Saulters has been named to the all-tournament team in every tournament his team has participated in, 17 in all. The 18-year-old athlete plays shortstop and pitcher in baseball. In 1961 he was named to the all-state team as a shortstop and last year as a pitcher. In 1962 Glynn was voted the state's most outstanding player in all three of his club's games in the tournament in Baton Rouge. A righthander, he won eight games and lost only one last season and has a 4-1 mound record so far this year. At the plate, he hit .386 last year and is batting .328 this season. He is rated an outstanding fielder by major league scouts. Glynn plans to major in pharmacy at Northeast. He has a "B" average in his school work and is president of his senior class.

The intramural department has also announced that the intramural track meet for this year has been set for 4 p.m. May 17. All boys wishing to enter the meet should sign the roster outside Brown Hall Room 105. Events to be run include 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard run, 120-yard high hurdles, 180-yard low hurdles, 440-yard relay, 880-yard relay, broad jump, high jump, shot put, and discus.

Baseballers Drop Twinbill, 4-0, 6-3, To Tech Bulldogs

Northeast State's baseball team ended its 1963 season on a sour note Monday afternoon with a 4-0 and 6-3 doubleheader loss to Louisiana Tech in Ruston. The double loss dropped the Indians below the .500 mark for the season with a 13 and 14 record overall, and 8 and 12 in the Gulf States Conference. The afternoon was somewhat frustrating for the Indian batsmen who could accumulate but nine hits in both games. In the opener the Indians managed only four hits off Tech's ace righthander George Woodson who went the distance to pick up his sixth win against only two losses. In the second tilt, the Indians were a bit more fortunate, connecting for five hits, including a double by Keith Prince and a homerun by John Hall. Both Northeast pitchers, Ed Quimby and Bobby Lockwood, went the distance. The two wins gave Tech a 9-8 GSC record and a 10-9 overall slate.

Maroons Topple Golds In Spring Basketball Tilt

Northeast State climaxed three weeks of spring basketball drills Monday night with Stuart Tom's Maroon team edging the Golds, led by Lanny Johnson, 81-76. Truett Nolan, the former Neville High School ace, paced the Maroon victory with 18 points to tie the Golds' Jimmy Walker for high-point honors. Three of Nolan's teammates also counted in the double figures. These included Irby Gamble with 17, Larry Butler with 16, and junior college transfer Walter Snelling, the brother of former Indian Jerry Snelling, with 13. For the Golds, redshirt Randy Alexander had 14, Billy Brooks tallied 12, and Tommy Enloe and Mike Lazenby each contributed 10. The Maroons held a skimpy 34-32 lead at halftime, but managed to hold on during the second half and never relinquished their advantage.

Golf, Tennis Teams Close Season Today

Both the golf and tennis teams from Northeast wrap up their 1963 seasons today with final-day activity in the Gulf States Conference meets in Ruston. Activity in the spring sports carnival opened yesterday, and will draw to a conclusion tomorrow night with the annual GSC track meet. In the tennis match today, the Indians rule as one of the favorites along with Northwestern, the only team to beat Northeast this season. Meanwhile, Northeast's golf team, which finished dual play with a four and four record, will be seeking to better its third place finish of last year.

Next stop for Northeast Louisiana State's track team and pole vault champ John Pennel is Ruston and tomorrow night's Gulf States Conference track and field meet. Coach Bob Groseclose's thinclads will attempt to win their second straight GSC title and their fourth in five years tomorrow night. Last Saturday Northeast won the team championship of its own Northeast Invitational, scoring 68 points to 56 for defending Southeastern Conference champion Mississippi State. Southwestern Louisiana was third with 52 points, East Texas State had 46, Louisiana Tech 43 and Northwestern 35.

Northeast took five firsts in the Invitational. Pennel won the vault with 16-0, missing on three attempts at 16-8. His clearance of 16 feet was his seventh in six weeks, more than any other vaulter ever. Anchored by Randall Walker's fine 46.4 anchor leg, Northeast won the mile relay in 3:11.4, one of the nation's fastest times, to clinch the victory. Cline Averett ran 48.3 off the blocks, Mike Wilson had a 49.7 and John Baker a 47.0 in the triumph. Walker picked up a first in the 440 when he won in 47.3, his best time of the spring and a track record.

Pennel, Walker Picked For Coliseum Relays

John Pennel, world record holder in the pole vault, and unbeaten quarter-miler Randall Walker of Northeast State College will compete in the giant Coliseum Relays in Los Angeles, Calif., May 17. Pennel's and Walker's acceptance of invitations to the 23rd annual Coliseum meet was announced Tuesday by Northeast State Coach Bob Groseclose and Athletic Director Jack Rowan. The two athlete's expenses will be paid by the Coliseum Relays. Both Pennel and Walker are seniors, the only four-year men on the Northeast team. Walker, from Hallsville, Tex., is unbeaten in the 440 for the past two years. He has won the Gulf States Conference quarter the past two years and also won the 220-yard low hurdles in the 1961 meet. He holds both the GSC and Sugar Bowl Meet 440 records, 47.4 in the GSC and 47.8 in the Sugar Bowl. Walker's career best in the quarter is 47.3, run last Saturday in the Northeast Invitational here, but he is considered by his coach to be capable of much faster times with strong competition. Pennel set the world record of 16-6 3/4 in the vault in a dual meet here April 30 and has cleared 16 feet or better seven times, more than any other vaulter in the world. In the Coliseum Relays, Pennel will be shooting for the meet record, now held by John Uelses, the first man to clear 16 feet, with a 16-1/4 last year. A strong field has been lined up to face the Northeast star, including Fred Hansen of Rice, C. K. Yang of UCLA, Rolando Cruz, Ron Morris of the Los Angeles Striders and Dave Turk—all of whom have cleared 16 feet once or more.

Northeast's tireless freshman star, Dalton LeBlanc, picked up the other first with a 14.4 in the high hurdles and a 23.7 around the curve in the 220-yard lows. LeBlanc also finished third in the 220 and ran a leg on the third-place sprint relay team for a total of 14 1/2 points, giving him a total of 124 1/2 for the year, tops on the team. The second-place performance by Tommy Edmonson in the vault was probably the most encouraging development in the meet. The Baton Rouge sophomore cleared 14-6, his highest ever. Edmonson cleared 14-0 in his first outdoor college meet in 1962 and numerous times since but had never gone higher until Saturday. Groseclose hopes that the blond vaulter will continue to improve and reach the 15-foot class next season. Englishman Malcolm Robinson of Southwestern was voted the outstanding track man at the Invitational with Pennel taking outstanding field man honors. Robinson, a sophomore from London, ran the nation's fastest two-mile of the year, 8:47.8, and also won the mile in 4:09.0.

Lettermen, Award Winners Will Be Honored Tuesday

Lettermen and award winners in seven sports will be honored at Northeast State's all-sports banquet Tuesday night in Gunby Dining Hall. Participants in football, cross country, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis and track will attend the banquet, which will begin at 7 o'clock, along with Northeast Booster Club directors, members of the college athletic council, members of the coaching staff, college officials and Northeast recruits. Athletic Director Jack Rowan said that because of the large number of awards to be presented, no speaker has been scheduled for the banquet.

Scabbard and Blade

Northeast's chapter of the National Society of the Scabbard and Blade held officer's election at their regular meeting on Thursday, May 2. Those elected include: Charles Evans, president; Don Walker, vice-president; James Fletcher, treasurer; and A. W. Steed, secretary.

Members are making plans for the annual Scabbard and Blade Barbecue and Dance to be held on Saturday, May 11. Members of the Military Department have been invited to attend as guests.

Pharmaceutical Association

The May meeting of the 5th District Pharmaceutical Association will be held Thursday, May 16, at 8 p.m. at the Rendezvous Restaurant in Monroe, August Danti, secretary-treasurer, has announced.

The dinner will commence at 8 p.m., at $2.75 per person, with the official business scheduled for 9 p.m., including the election of officers for active members.

Wilfred K. Scroggins is president and Thomas Kelley is vice-president of the 5th District.

Phi Beta

Phi Beta, professional speech fraternity for women, will present its annual Supper Theatre at the Paragon Club tonight. Tickets for the affair are $3.00, and may be purchased from any member.

Two scenes from "The Fourposter", a hit Broadway comedy, will be presented. The play deals with the life of a married couple, from the honeymoon to thirty-five years later. Gail Shoudy and Mike Parkerson will play the roles of wife and husband.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Beta Nu chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma has elected Bob Fava, junior accounting member, as its most active member. Named as the best fall semester pledge is Ricky Foster, sophomore art education student.

Thomas Claridge, senior geology major from Charlotte, North Carolina has been chosen president of the Interfraternity Council. Other Sigma Tau members of the council are James McGough and Bob Fava.

G. B. Gandy, assistant executive secretary from Sigma Tau national headquarters, arrived yesterday from St. Louis to visit Beta Nu chapter to discuss the organization's future activities.

Also on the fraternity's calendar will be the traditional spring White Rose formal, scheduled May 18 in the Crystal Ballroom of the Virginia Hotel, where music will be played by the "Knights" from Jackson, Miss.

Winner of the White Rose title will not be announced until the Northeast coed is presented at the ball.

Nominees from which she is chosen include Jan Hallmark, Sharon Thompson, both of Monroe, and Penny Williams of New Iberia.

Notice

A reward is being offered to anyone returning a 1962 Holly Ridge class ring to the News Bureau in Stubbs Hall. The ring has the initials M. A. R. inside, a blue stone, and an eagle emblem on the stone.

The reward may be claimed by bringing the ring by the News Bureau.

The ring was lost on the Northeast Campus recently somewhere near one of the libraries or somewhere between the two buildings.
