Five Coeds Elected Mardi Gras Finalists

Five Northeast coeds were elected Wednesday as members of the Mardi Gras Ball court with one to be chosen as queen for the Phi Delta Chi sponsored affair Feb. 7.

Chosen were Paula Andrus of Eunice, Susan Carter of Mer Rouge, Bette Foster of Natchez, Miss., Carolyn Rea of Monroe and Sandy Ussery of Monroe.

plaque will be presented to the sponsoring organization of each member of the court.

Other Candidates

The other candidates and their sponsoring organizations were:

Donna Anderson of Shreveport, sponsored by the Women's Residence Hall Council; Sandra Faye Aycock, Pineville, Ouachita Hall; Monte Sue Ballard, Shreveport, Student Government Association; Linda Blair, Monroe, Senior Board.

Janis Brandon, Monroe, Sigma Tau Gamma; Becky Butler, Arcadia, Kappa Delta; Sylvia Dowd, Monroe, American Pharmaceutical Association.

Sharon Harrelson, West Monroe, Monroe Hall; Beverly Najt, New Orleans, Serrouse Hall; Lynda Ogden, Mer Rouge, Kappa Epsilon; Margaret Pettyjohn, Monroe, Scabbard & Blade.

Pam Reed, Opelousas, Panhellenic Council; Kathy Ross, New Orleans, Harris Hall; Brenda Smith, Shreveport, National Collegiate Association for Secretaries; Pat Smith, Tullos, Slater Hall; Linda Szivos, Ville Platte, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Marcy Taylor, Monroe, Home Economics Club; Carolyn Thompson, Calhoun, Fusileers; Barbara Williams, Minden, Breard Hall; Kay Williams, Monroe, Tau Kappa Epsilon; and Shirley Yancey, Shreveport, Cosper Hall.

The five were chosen from a group of 26, sponsored by various organizations on campus. Alice Godwin, Sweetheart of the Beta Beta chapter of the national pharmaceutical fraternity, will also serve on the court but will not be eligible to reign as queen.

The queen of the sixth annual ball will be selected by secret ballot by members of the fraternity.

Featuring 'The Uniques'

The Uniques will supply the music for the dance, scheduled from 8-12 p.m. in Gunby Dining Hall. It is the second straight appearance for the group at the ball.

An admission charge of $1 per person will be charged, according to Phi Delta Chi President Chris Bradberry, Lafayette senior. He said admission charges will be assessed for the first time to help offset increased expenses.

Door prizes of $5, $10, and $15 will be awarded to best costumes, with members of the faculty serving as judges.

Sam Peterson, a senior from DeQuincy and chairman of the ball committee, said the theme of the ball this year will be "Mardi Gras in New Orleans."

Each member of the court will receive a charm bracelet and a

Dr. Hitt, LSUNO Chancellor, Scheduled As Jan. 24 Commencement Speaker

Dr. Homer L. Hitt, chancellor of Louisiana State University in New Orleans, will be the commencement speaker at Northeast's mid-year graduation exercises here Jan. 24. Dr. George T. Walker, president of the College, has announced

Commencement will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 24, at Neville

Auditorium. A total of 141 students are candidates for graduation.

Heads LSUNO

Dr. Hitt has been head of LSUNO since 1957. He was appointed dean in 1957, his title was changed to vice president of LSU in charge of LSUNO in 1959 and the title was changed again to chancellor in 1963.

A native of Texas, Dr. Hitt received B.S. and M.S. degrees from LSU and M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard University.

He joined the LSU faculty in 1941 after serving as a social scientist in the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. He was a naval officer during World War II.

Associate Dean

Prior to assuming leadership at LSUNO, Dr. Hitt served as associate dean of the Graduate School as well as professor and head of the Department of Sociology at LSU in Baton Rouge.

He is listed in "Who's Who in America," "American Men of Science," won the "Headliner of the Year" award from the Press Club of New Orleans in 1963 and received the Community Service Award of the Greater New Orleans AFL-CIO, also in 1963.

Civic Affairs

He is a member of the Council of Trustees of the Gulf South Research Institute and has been active in civic affairs, serving on the Executive Committee of the city-wide Total Community Action program in New Orleans and on the Commission on Mental Illness of the Southern Regional Education Board.

Minnie Ho Ho Ho

By MARGE PETTYJOHN

To commemorate National Weather Week, a Weather Bureau building with a stationary front has been built in Washington.

On This Day In History: U.S. Mint Building completed. President christens new quarters.

Now, what could be more appropriate for the new year than a few hearty words of advice from the old half-skull? Before you answer that question, let me reel off these choice items for your meditation: (1) Remember that HONESTY is the best policy — but an ANNUITY is good, too; (2) If, when you gaze into a mirror, you feel a sudden, overwhelming burst of affection for yourself, don't be embarrassed — it happens to me every day; (3) Be nice to people — remember, there are so MANY of them and only ONE of you; (4) Stay healthy — keeping in mind that most Americans — unless they're mighty careful — have a tendency to haul off and die sometime between the ages of 15 and 94; and (5) Never forget that you cannot fool ALL of the people ALL of the time because SOME of those people will be fooling YOU — you can, however, fool SOME of the people SOME of the time — but not enough to make a living.

Resolutions

Now that 1966 is just a memory (and what a memory!) we have given some thoughts to 1967. New Year's resolutions usually manage to get broken within an hour or so after being firmly stated. The only way to prevent this would be to forget to make them in the first place. However, I have a list of habits that can be broken. So I present to you my resolutions I know I won't keep:

1. Keep my mouth closed when I yawn.
Keep my mouth closed in class.
Keep my mouth closed most times.
2. Stop building fires to send smoke signals in the Pow Wow office. It creates confusion.
3. Look up words I don't understand — like "addlepated" (which means muddleheaded).
4. Read the newspapers every day — and not just the comics.
5. Stop writing '66 instead of '67.
6. Remember to sharpen pencils in marketing class before ye olde prof begins lecture.
7. Fight the impulse to slide down the banisters. You never can tell where you'll land.

I overheard someone asking my mother the other day, "What is your daughter taking in college?" to which she retorted: "All I've got."

Handy Chops

1. She's so dull she even THINKS in a monotone!
2. I didn't say that you had a large nose. I merely pointed out that you could get along all right on your own HOOK.
3. I love your new hair-do. I never realized steel wool could be so becoming.
4. Mistakes will happen, but must you give them so much help?
5. You look like an ugly rumor looking for a place to begin.

And, during finals, remember: IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED, YOU'RE ABOUT AVERAGE.

1966 Is Another Year Of Achievement For Northeast Louisiana State College

Individual and group efforts made 1966 another year of achievement for Northeast.

As in the past few years, construction dominated the news. Four buildings opened in September, the traffic bridge was completed early in the fall and nine structures were named.

Work on Brown Stadium will be completed this month and work is progressing on two dorms, 11-story Olin Hall which will house 832 men, and Lerner Hall which will house 212 women. Both are to be in use next fall.

Preliminary plans were also completed in '66 on three more building projects, a health and physical education center-gymnasium, a pharmacy building and renovation of Bry Hall; and architects are drawing plans for an administration-classroom building.

The College also bought four parcels of land from the non-profit Northeast Louisiana Land Corporation.

New Programs
Northeast headlines told of new graduate programs in pharmacy and speech and bachelor degree curriculums in geophysics and building construction, the establishment of a department of psychology and national accreditation of the Department of Nursing.

Leading the faculty news were the appointment of three deans, four department heads and two acting department heads, along with stories of professors authoring magazine articles, one a book and one an encyclopedia section.

Forty-five faculty members received promotions and currently 39 per cent of the faculty hold doctor's degrees.

Faculty members were also nominated to "Who's Who" publications, one was issued a U.S. patent and several others were invited to participate in programs which recognized them as outstanding in their fields.

Students and organizations comprised the bulk of the news. Thirty-five outstanding upperclassmen were nominated to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." Joy Woods, fourth NLSC coed to reign as Miss Louisiana but first "Miss Northeast!"

to do so, made national headlines.

Aid War Effort
Students aided the Viet Nam war effort by donating 309 pints of blood and sending books to soldiers.

Freshmen donned new-styled "beanies," and they gained honors when several ranked among the top one per cent nationwide on entrance exams.

School spirit soared as Homecoming Bonfire enthusiasts helped "Cactus Jack Rack-Em-Back," as fans gathered at the airport to greet Indians returning from a 21-14 upset over East Carolina, and as someone from Bloomfield, N.J., dared the height of the 11-story scaffold to hang a "Wreck Tech" sign.

Northeast's chapter of Pi Sigma Epsilon again swept awards at its national convention; Circle K set-up a "Travel Board" in the CUB to aid students in finding rides home, and Westminster's Homecoming parade "Jolly Green Giant" car reaped first place and frozen vegetables.

Fourth Sorority
The fourth social sorority, Kappa Delta, established a chapter at NLSC, and 96 women pledged sororities and 151 men pledged fraternities.

"Jay and the Americans" and the "Righteous Brothers" entertained students, and the faculty-student Lectures-Concerts Committee and other organizations brought several noted performers and speakers to the campus.

Parking, as always, was one of the main controversial issues as were Dead Week and Mardi Gras Holidays.

NLSC To Be Represented At State Association Meet

Northeast is among several institutions in Louisiana which have been invited to participate in the Association of Women Students State Day at Alexandria, Jan. 14.

Wesley Contest Winners Named

Winners have been announced for the Wesley Foundation's Poetry and Drama Quest, a program designed to encourage high standards of achievement through the various literary forms and originality of expression of God's activity in the world.

The winners were: Poetry—Frances Parker, first place; Karen Bauer, second place, and Frances Parker, third place. Drama—Holly Sue Bayne, first place. Prose—Karen Bauer, first place, and Robert Butler, second place.

Only registered students were eligible for the awards, which included $25, $15, $10 for first second and third places, respectively.

The judges for poetry were Patrick Garrett, Dr. Frank Morgan and Jerry Yarbrough; for drama Dr. George C. Brian and William J. Haddad, executive director of Monroe's Little Theatre.

The works will be on exhibit at the Wesley Foundation until Feb. 7.

Dr. Shadoin Talks At Jan. 4 Meeting Of SLTA Here

Dr. Bernard Shadoin, head of the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, was the guest speaker at the Jan. 4 meeting of the Student Louisiana Teachers Association.

Dr. Shadoin told SLTA members that to become involved in a professional organization is a vital part of one's college experience. He said "make the most of membership in your professional organization and be concerned about your work as a student."

Due to office vacancies from last year's election Pat Herlevic was elected first vice president and Maureen Turner was elected secretary.

Chuck Staneart is president of the student organization and Mrs. Ruby Ball is advisor.

Activities, scheduled to begin at 9:45 a.m. at the Ramada Inn, are under the sponsorship this year of Louisiana Tech.

Representing NLSC will be Miss Alma Lucy, dean of women, and Miss Ramona Wigly, counselor to women students, and Northeast students Kris Kahmer, Nelda Culppeper, Sandy Simpson, Peggy Ratcliff, Karen Thomas, Jean Craig and Pam Stephens.

Miss Lucy said the day's activities will include several discussion sessions and a luncheon, with Dean Sarah Healy of the University of Alabama as the featured speaker.

Among the discussion topics will be communications between students and administration, students and faculty, and between students themselves; AWS activities, campus-wide, for residence hall students, and for commuters, and a discussion of campus honor societies, women's rules and freshman orientation.

In Our Opinion

'Twas Night Before Finals

'Twas the night before finals
And all through the dorms,
Not a student was stirring,
Not even a freshman.

Male students were cautious
And justly they should,
For without passing grades
Uncle Sam would be near.

Midnight oil had been burned
And all books had been read,
Now all that remains
Are the days to be dread.

Cramming and stuffing
And filling their heads,
Students of Northeast
Headed for bed.

All was behind them
And little remained,
Except for the days
Of those awful exams.

The exams will come
There is little doubt of that,
And if you're not ready
Then you'll be left out.

There is little time for playing
And even less for goofing off,
For the time has drawn near
When wishing won't work.

Take this note seriously
And listen to these words,
For without any studying
You're doomed for the worst.

As a final remark
From the Pow Wow we say:
"We're wishing you all . . .
The best on your tests."

Point Of No Return

Again that time of the semester has approached when there is no turning back. You have reached the "point of no return." From today until Friday, Jan. 20, the results of your fall semester are at stake.

Will it be a fall semester or a "fall" semester? For some, the finals will not affect their grades. But for those who have passing grades, next week will either make or break them.

Finals will conclude Friday, Jan. 20, with the semester officially ending at noon, Saturday, Jan. 21.

A 9-day holiday will be observed, ending with spring registration on Monday-Tuesday, Jan. 30-31.

Classes will begin Wednesday, Feb. 1.

Today . . . Friday — — 13th

Superstitious? You say you're not? Okay, then we will remind you that today is Friday the 13th.

But don't get too alarmed. Come October and the Halloween month you will have this same problem again. Last year only

May possessed this "tradition" day.

But . . . wait till next year. In 1968, September and December will each have a Friday the 13th. Can you think of a better way to start a school semester and to end a year?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"I HOPE YOU FELLAS HAVE ALL STUDIED HARD FOR THIS TEST—THESE GENTLEMEN ARE HERE TO GRADE TH' PAPERS!"

Editor's Notebook

By Pat Herlevic

FRIDAY — JANUARY 13, 1967

Friday is a proverbially unlucky day, especially when it falls on the thirteenth of the month. Superstitions connected with Friday, however, vary and to some it is a day of good luck.

There are those who believe that Friday is a bad day to start a journey, to move from one house to another or to begin new work of any kind unless finished on the same day. In general new undertakings are best left alone on Friday, lest misfortune follow.

Many versions have been given of the origin of Friday superstitions. One of the best known is the tale that Eve tempted Adam with the apple on Friday, and because he partook of the forbidden fruit, they both forfeited their right to remain in the Garden of Eden. Due to their disobedience and their expulsion from Paradise, Friday became a fast day on which fish was eaten.

Tradition also has it that the Flood of the Bible, and the confusion in the tower of Babel also took place on Friday. Another traditional belief is that Jesus died on the cross to redeem humanity on this ill-omened day, which has become a day of fast and penance observed by humble and grateful people.

No-Work Day

Still another superstition, but much more ancient, goes back to savage and primitive tribes who are said to have set aside a "no-work" day which was to be given over to primitive religious devotions in which the gods were implored with sacrificial offerings to provide good crops, health and happiness.

Those who worked on this day instead of worshipping could not expect the "good luck" to come as favors from their gods. This explains the taboo against starting or doing anything important on Friday.

In Europe, the custom of executing criminals on Friday dates back to the Middle Ages. It used to be known as "hangman's day."

In ancient times, Friday was the Sabbath with many peoples. The word Friday comes to us from the combination of three Norse gods: Frey, Lord of the solar disc, Freya, his sister and goddess of love and Frigg, the wife of Woden or Odin, the one-eyed god.

Luckiest Marriage Day

In honor of Frigg, the Norse goddess of love and marriage, the early Scandinavian peoples regarded Friday as their luckiest marriage day. Many Hindus regard it the same way and today most Scotch people expect the best fortune to follow if they marry on Friday.

Friday used to be the seventh day of the week, according to the old Jewish lunar calendar and a day on which fish was and still is eaten. Later Saturday became their Sabbath.

Saturday, or Saturn's Day, was shifted from its first place in the week and Sunday replaced it. The many changes in the calendar have created much confusion, especially as Friday customs and beliefs as a day of rituals and meditation were transferred to other days which represent the Sabbath to other peoples. Today, the Sabbath falls on each day of the week according to the customs and beliefs of each people.

Hel and Freya

Our words "hell" and "Friday" both come from goddesses intimately associated with cats. Hel was the daughter of Loki and goddess of the dead and the underworld. The Norse mythology, in common with that of the Egyptians, made the cat a figure of worship.

Freya, the Venus of the North, goddess of beauty and fruitful love, rode in a car drawn by a pair of cats.

In time, in Southern Germany, Freya came to be known as Hell, and though still kindly and beautiful, she now represented only the winter season and became known not only as the goddess of life, but also of death. When the Norse and Teutons were converted to Christianity Freya was consigned to the mountain fastness as a witch, and her name-day, Friday, became the day chosen by witches for their strange meetings.

These witches met on their Sabbath, generally in cemeteries, in the dark of the moon and in a group of twelve. Freya is said to have given the witches one of her cats, making it the thirteenth to them, one source of the origin of unlucky thirteenth.

Friday superstitions, which number hundreds, have their roots in the mythological soil of the ages, probably too deeply ever to die.

"College House"

Kansas State U. — A co-educational "college house" established and operated by University of Texas students who were dissatisfied with dormitory and fraternity living could prove to be a welcome housing experiment at other institutions, comments the Kansas University Collegian, Manhattan.

With money from a private foundation and cautious consent of the deans of students, the students opened the off-campus living quarters in which they make their own rules and select residents.

The "house" is actually a complex of buildings, with coeds and men usually living in separate buildings. A professor and his family live in each complex, and other faculty members are invited to dinner often.

The college house seems like an excellent mode of living for those students who like to live neither in an apartment nor under the regulations of the Greek system.

If students would share cooking and cleaning responsibilities, living in such a college house could save a great deal of time and money.

The school has approved plans also for an on-campus coeducational dormitory.

SGA Holds Last Meeting For 1966 Fall Semester

The last meeting of the Student Government Association for the fall semester was held Jan. 5. Walter Cochran, SGA treasurer, announced that the SGA pins were in and that they could be picked up and paid for at any time. The president's pin has a diamond and will be handed down each year. John Nipper of the H&PE Department asked the Senate to appropriate money for trophies for the intramural program. Large first and second place trophies will be purchased for the organization league winners while the first and second place winners in the independent league will receive small individual trophies. Those winning individual honors will also receive small trophies.

The Senate approved the request for funds.

Maureen Turner, social chairman, announced that there would be no movie tonight due to next week being final exam week.

Teacher Evaluation was discussed and the committee was instructed to continue working on the program.

No meeting of the SGA was slated for last night.

The Tau's voted Monday night to submit a bid to play the KA's in the Charity Bowl. They have decided to have one less party and spend as much money as they must to have the opportunity to play KA in the game.

Members and pledges of Sig Tau have been studying hard this past week in preparing for finals, hoping to win the fraternity scholarship award for the second consecutive year.

Congratulations to Brother Dean Atkins, who recently married Kay McDowell, and to Brother Bobby Rugan who announced his engagement to Susan Fye.

Best of luck to Sig Tau alumnus, Smokey Stover, linebacker for Kansas City Chiefs, in the Super Bowl on Sunday.

Debaters Win Four Rounds In Tourney

Northeast debaters Ellen Smith, sophomore from Shreveport, and Holly Sue Bayne, senior from Monroe, reached the quarterfinals in the Millsaps College Tournament in Jackson, Miss., last weekend.

In the quarterfinals match, Ellen and Holly Sue were defeated by Florida State University. The Northeast team reached the quarterfinals by defeating Mississippi College, East Central College from Oklahoma, the University of Houston and the University of Alabama.

Other Teams

Other teams representing Northeast at the tournament included Diane Harper, sophomore of Shreveport, and Linda Barras, sophomore of New Iberia, who were entered in the senior competition.

Forming the two teams entered in the junior division were freshmen Catherine Bowers of Baton Rouge, and Catherine Ann Stone of Monroe; Pamela Barrios, Mobile, and Linda Thompson, Monroe.

Ellen and Holly was the only Northeast team to survive the preliminary rounds.

Individual Events

In the individual events, Northeast was represented in oratory by Ron Robinson, senior of Bastrop, and Pamela Barrios, and in extemporaneous speaking by Linda Barras.

The subject debated was "Resolved: That the United States should substantially reduce its foreign policy commitments."

Summer Tour Set For Greece, Egypt, Near East

Plans for a Summer Study Tour of Greece, Egypt and the Near East have been announced.

The foreign tour, sponsored by the School of Liberal Arts, will be the longest Northeast tour and will include three continents — Europe, Africa and Asia — and seven countries — Greece, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Israel and Turkey.

Tom McCann, the faculty member who will serve as director of the tour, said a maximum of 30 persons could make the tour. The cost per person will be $1,297.50, which covers all expenses — air, ship and bus fares, registration, meals, tips, lodging and insurance.

Anyone eligible to attend Northeast can make the tour, McCann said.

The tour will begin Aug. 3 and end Aug. 24.

Highlights of Greece

Among the highlights of the tour in Greece, the first country to be visited, are a two and a half day cruise among the beautiful Greek Islands aboard the S.S. Romantica, visits to the Acropolis to see the Parthenon and the Erechtheum in Athens, and a trip to Delphi for tours of the ruins of the Temple of Apollo, the Greek Theatre and the Stadium.

From Greece, the tour will move to Cairo where visits will be made to the museums, mosques and bazaars of the Egyptian capital. The following day the tourists will motor along the Nile to the great pyramids of Giza.

Next on the tour is a flight to Luxor, the greatest center of antiquities in the world. The huge statues of Rameses, the world famous Valley of the Kings and the Temple of Karnak will be visited.

Lebanon Visit

In Lebanon, the tour will include trips to the Greco-Roman ruins at Baalbek. In Syria, Damascus, the oldest inhabited city in the world, will be visited.

A full day's tour of Jerusalem will include the "gabbatha" of the Fortress of Antonia where Christ was tried before Pilate, Calvary and the Chapel of the Crucifixion, the Grotto and the Chapel of the Finding of the Cross.

From Jerusalem, the tourists will visit Bethlehem and the Church of the Nativity and the Grotto of the Manger, plus the Mount of Olives and the Garden of Gethsemane.

Jerusalem Tour

On Aug. 20, the tourists will pass through the Mandelbaum Gate into the New City of Jerusalem where they will see Mount Zion, the Tomb of King David, the Upper Room of the Last Supper, and Hebrew University for a view of the Dead Sea Scrolls.

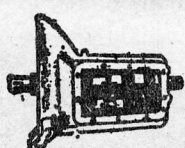

In Israel, the tour will include Nazareth and other Biblical spots along with the modern cities of Haifa and Tel Aviv.

Final city on the tour is Istanbul. Additional information may be obtained about the tour or reservations made by calling McCann at 325-6361, extension 326. A $100 down payment will reserve a place on the tour.

Lions Spill Redskin Roundballers, 80-70

A TRIBE TRADITION—Buster Toms, cousin of former Indian great Stuart Toms, netted 21 points in a fine effort against Southeastern Tuesday. Toms was the second highest scorer for last year's frosh club with a 15.8 average.

FROSH STANDOUT—Larry Saulters, brother of ace cager Glynn Saulters, is doing a fine job for the Indian "5" this season. One of the few freshmen to play on the varsity squad, he has averaged 7.5 points per game.

Poor Shooting Averages Cause Of Redskin Defeat

The last four minutes spelled defeat for Northeast in a conference game against Southeastern in Hammond Tuesday night.

It was off and on for the two teams most of the game as the lead kept changing hands, but Hammond's Lions dominated play in the last minutes, netting 11 straight points, and going on to win 80-70.

Coach Lenny Fant's Indians, now 2-2 in GSC play, matched shots with SLC deep into the final frame and led 70-69 with 4:30 left, before the SLC barrage began.

Wilson's Gain

Don Wilson, the Monterey product, gave the Lions a lead they never relinquished when he drilled home two free tosses with 4:07 remaining, then shoved them further in front seconds later with two more free tosses followed by a driving bucket that left the score, 75-70.

After a couple of misses by Northeast, SLC began its stall offense with 2:40 left. From here on Northeast was forced to foul the Lions who then proceeded to score well at the free throw line.

After it was all over the reasons for the Lions' victory were easily seen. The Lions whipped Northeast at the free throw line, hitting 26 of 30 for an 86.7 mark as compared to eight of 14 for the Indians, a 50.9 average.

Backboard Failure

Also, SLC gave Northeast one of its worst beatings ever on the backboards by pulling down 44 rebounds while the Indians were getting only 23.

Donnie Jones, a 6-3 sophomore, dominated the boards with 15 grabs and veteran C. A. Core had 11. Thompson led the Indians with seven.

Guard Steve Picou, probably the most improved scorer in the GSC this year, led Southeastern with 27 points. Core had 19, Wilson 16 and Jones 11.

High Scorer

Glynn Saulters was high for Northeast with 22 points and added to his school free throw record by hitting the first four he attempted before missing on his final attempt with less than two minutes remaining in the game.

String of 38

The four successful free tosses ran Glynn's consecutive string to 38. He had broken the Northeast mark of 27 last week against McNeese when he hit 12 in a row.

Buster Toms had a big night for the Tribe with 21 points on 10 of 16 from the field plus a free shot in his only attempt. Thompson followed with 14 and Larry Saulters, who fouled out for the second straight game, chipped in 11 points.

The Indians are at home Saturday night when they host Louisiana College.

Gymnasts Prepare To Start New Year With LSU, Northwestern Dual Meets

After closing out 1966 with outstanding showings at two meets in Tucson, Ariz., Northeast's Indian gymnastics team began preparing for two major dual meets scheduled for early February.

Coach Jerry Ainsworth's team has no meets on the agenda until Feb. 3 when it plays host to LSU in a dual meet in Brown Gym. On Feb. 11, the Indians will travel to Natchitoches for a dual contest with Northwestern that shapes up as a possible preview of national championship competition. Northwestern is the defending National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) champion while Northeast, last year's fourth place finisher, is rated one of the top title contenders for 1967.

Kanzaki Stars

Northeast, led by its Japanese star, Katsutoshi Kanzaki, took five firsts in the two December meets in Tucson.

Kanzaki won one event and placed second in another to help the East defeat the West in the East-West All-Star Gymnastics Championship Dec. 27. The Northeast ace won the parallel bars with a 9.65 score and was second in the high bar.

Other Northeast performers placing in the East-West meet were Ed Clarke, third in still rings, and Dennis Sullivan, fourth in parallel bars.

All-Star Coach

Ainsworth coached the East team, which defeated the West, 200.05 to 198.0. He was the first Louisiana mentor to coach one of the all-star teams.

In the Western Gymnastics Clinic Open Meet Dec. 30 in Tucson, Northeast swept four first places, Kanzaki winning three and Clarke one. Kanzaki was first in the all-around competition with 55.5 points, took the parallel bars with a 9.5 score and was first in high bar with 9.65.

Clark, the Tribe's sensational one-legged star, was first in rings with 9.45.

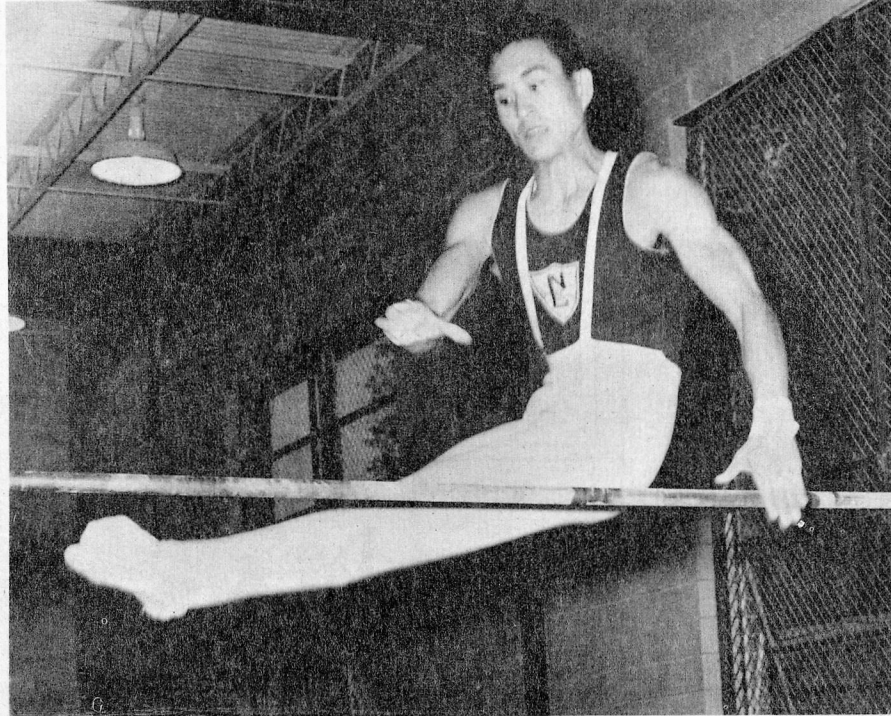

Sullivan won two seconds and one fourth, coming in behind Kanzaki in all-around and high bar and finishing fourth in parallel bars.

Kanzaki was second in free exercise and Steve Parr with third in long horse.

Highest Scorer

Although no team championship was decided, Northeast was the highest scoring club in the meet, usually dominated by California universities. The meet was the conclusion of an annual five-day clinic. More than 20 state university teams and 500 gymnasts participated in the meet.

Other Northeast gymnasts who made the Tucson trip were Dwight McLemore, Steve Nelson and Ray Carnahan.

For 1966

Kirkendall, Thomas Named Grid Captains

The 1966 Northeast football team has elected seniors James Kirkendall and Alton Thomas as permanent co-captains.

Announcement of the election was made by Coach Dixie White Friday night at a dinner-dance for the football squad at Coenen Cafeteria.

Northeast game captains are appointed by the coaching staff for each game of the season, and permanent captains are chosen by the squad at each campaign's end.

Kirkendall, an offensive tackle, played high school football at Sulphur and now lives in Midvale, Utah. Thomas, an offensive halfback, is from Shreveport and played prep ball at Byrd High.

All-Stars Honored

White also presented certificates to the six Northeast football stars who made the all-Gulf States Conference team selected by the league coaches. They were Kirkendall, center Vic Bender of North Miami, Fla., and fullback Bobby Scafidel of Chalmette, who made the offensive team, and defensive tackle Ronnie Sumter of Shreveport, guard Greg Jubert of Franklin and end Charles Rohmer of Baton Rouge.

Kirkendall, Sumter and Bender, along with Thomas and place kicker Clark Blake also made the all-conference team chosen by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association.

Grid Stars Ink Pacts To NLSC

Two star football players from Amite High School, one a second team all-state fullback, have been signed by Northeast State.

Coach Dixie White announced the signing of fullback Dewey Biscotto and defensive back Gerald Jenkins.

1,000 Yard Gainer

Biscotto, 5-10 and 185, made the class AA all-state second team after gaining more than 1,000 yards rushing in each of the last two seasons. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Biscotto of Fluker.

Jenkins stands 6-0 and weighs 175 pounds. He is the son of Mrs. Beatrice M. Jenkins of Roseland.

Northeast Assistant Bill Dotson signed the two players.

Pill Rollers Capture Bowling Crown; Dalio Wins First League Tournament

Ben Dalio captured the crown in the First Annual Tuesday Night Major League Tournament at the CUB bowling lanes last Tuesday evening.

The tournament, first of its kind at Northeast, was held to raise money with which to purchase bowling shirts for every member of the league.

Dalio posted scores of 171, 169 and 214 for a 665 handicapped series to win the first place trophy. Butch Hunter captured second honors with a series of 648. Benny Fortenberry was third with a 645 series.

Thirty-five bowlers participated in the competition.

Regular Play Ends

The Pill Rollers captured first place honors in the Tuesday Night League regular play with a four game shut-out over the last place Indians, ending fall semester competition with a 41-15 game record.

John Bunch led the Pill Rollers with a 468 and high man for the Indians was Larry McMullern with a 408 series.

Second place trophy winners, the Alley Rats, ended the season two games out.

Individual winners were John Di Maria, highest average, Frank Melli, highest series and Gary Troclair, highest game. Benny Fortenberry received the sportsmanship award.

Members of the winning team are John Bunch, Ed Donnelly, Larry Lamb, Dewey Weatherford and Dan Winslow.

In other final action, the Green Hornets beat the Bombs 3-1; the Alley Rats defeated the Sleezes 3-1; and the third place Jersey Boys shut out the V.I.B.'s 4-0.

Semester Standings:	Won	Lost
Pill Rollers	41	15
Alley Rats	39	17
Jersey Boys	37	19
Sleezes	31	25
Green Hornets	26	30
Bombs	23	33
V.I.B.'s	12	44
Indians	3	12

Women's Play

In the Women's Bowling League, second place Piggly Wiggly scored a 3-1 victory over first place Coca-Cola, but is still behind the league leader by three games. Piggly Wiggly's Dinky Crow rolled 150 while the losing team's high scorer Bobbie Taylor bowled 141.

Jane Craivnauer recorded the highest individual game of the night's action with 171 and led Flynn's to a 2-2 tie with Weirs Cleaners. The loser's Dorothy Baum hit 130. Burney's Furniture shut out Minitman 4-0, with the winner's Liz Hendrix scoring 167 and followed close by Minitman's Ida Chadwick with 164.

The Student Section

With Ronnie Luno

Well, sports fans, another year is gone and with it another fall semester of NLSC athletics. I for one, can't say I'm sorry it's over. However, it was a good semester for sports.

Indian gridiron fans came alive after the Tribe stunned East Carolina State, a major college, with a 21-14 upset in the second game of the season.

As the season progressed, it became obvious that Northeast did have a football team — in fact, one of the best teams in the conference. The '66 edition of the Redskins re-wrote the school's record books, ending the season with a 7-3 tally, a national ranking and even having kicked an extra point or two or three or four . . . maybe even 22.

Other bright spots of the fall semester were the successful Lifetime Sports Clinic; the triumphs of Kanzaki & Co., the Indian gymnastics team which seems headed for a national championship and, after a slow start, the rampaging Redskin roundballers.

There was, however, one sorrow on the sports scene this fall. This was the semester of the demise of your "trustworthy young college sports editor," F. L. Clark, who recently retired to a more lucrative enterprise; yet he will always be remembered—who could ever forget?—for "Birdie Missnever and her Madras Mod 'Tennie Boots'" and his predictions of Stout State over Ursinus. His famous last words as he cranked up his old green "car" and drove out of sight were:

"Chin up, fans, last year may never come again but at least neither will its blunders, gaffes, and unnewsworthy sports happenings.

In retaliation for last year's cliches, herewith are Clark's Negative Notions for the New Year:

Track — The Russian track team, the night before the US-USSR meet, will file from its airplane, sprint up to the milling mass of photographers and newsmen, pick up banners and signs, start marching around with these signs while the flash bulbs pop, and the signs will read, 'Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men,' and 'We ain't protestin' nothin'.'

Basketball — The nation's wire services will not take any pictures of basketball players wrestling after a ball on the floor, or players with their heads hidden by the ball or other players.

Bowling—Don Darter, the idol of bowling fans everywhere, is in the tenth frame of the PBA championship final. He has 11 strikes in a row, needing only one more for a perfect game and an additional $10,000 prize. He sets, approaches the lane, and delivers the ball. It is a perfect strike, without any wobbling pins, etc. Says Ron, 'I deserve it.'

Special Events Planned For Coenen

Plans for special events at Coenen Cafeteria during the spring semester are being made, according to Mrs. Harriet Walker, director of Food Services.

Each month there will be two date nights with dancing. Steak and french fries will be offered at nominal cost once a month, while special lunch prices will be offered once a week. Cutrate prices will be featured every day on certain items.

At the noon meal on Sundays, table linen will be used at Coenen, giving students the opportunity to dress up for a meal.

Students who wish to eat in Coenen may sign up for meals and all special features when fees are paid at registration.

He's telling her, RAY'S is such a nice place to go for a Coke.
She's telling him, RAY'S is a nice place to have dinner, too.
They'll probably go on talking about RAY'S all day.
